London Times' Views Regarding Negotiations With the Boers.

Leaders Call Meetings of Their Followers to Discuss the Question of General Surrender.

London, April 2.-The Times prints an article on the peace negotiation in South Africa, in which it urges that negotiations must not be hampered by premature publication of the terms. It is, says the writer, not sufficiently British press that the leaders of the Boer war party are

NOT SIMPLE FARMERS, whose reading is confined to the Bible, but lawyers, who know English politics well. If the armed burghers in the field assent to the conclusion of a convention by Steyn and Schalkburger, there is, it is asserted, no doubt that the separate existence of the republics the rank and file might repudiate any arrangement negotiated.

COLONIAL OPINION. admitted is that colonial opinion must be considered in the matter of peace terms. Canada, Australia and Zealand have earned the right to be consulted. While a generous policy in granting terms would be the wisest, the claims of Cape loyalists, the Uit-landers and colonists must be the first consideration. The article urges that no nucleus of a hostile state must be left intact, though the utmost possible degree of self-government should be granted the Boer colonies. It says: "Leave any district of the Transvaal under purely

MESSAGES MIXED.

A message from Tunis tells of a curious incident in connection with the wireless telegraph instruments installed on the French ironclad St. Louis, and the torpedo boat Dunois, which recently arrived at Tunis. The officers were surprised to find that their instruments were affected by another set, of which they were ignorant. The operator on the St. Louis could not read the messages, but the one on the Dunois could. Subsequently it was found that the strange apparatus belonged to a lieutenant of the Fourth Zouaves and another of Tunis, who had had installed for a week imperfect sets of wireless instruments in their residences for their personal use.
