Dressed Hogs-The demand is good, although only a limited number are required; prices rule at $8.75 to $9 per cwt, mostly at the latter figure.

Live Hogs—The price for Monday will July Live Hogs—The price for Monday will be $6.75 per cwt for selects; some of the packers are endeavoring to purchase in Buffaio and Chicago markets, but as the duty is 1½c per lb, it prohibits the importation: how long the present prices will prevail is guesswork, but the fact remains that there is a decided scarcity of hogs at present; fat sows are quoted at $4 per cwt; small pigs, $5 to $8 per pair, according to age and size.

Butchers' Meats—Sales are a trifle better; the quantity offered is not large; beef sells at $6 to $8 per cwt; veal, $5 to $8 per cwt; mutton, $c to 9c per lb; lamb, $12c per lb for yearlings; spring lambs, $5 July 720 $7 per cwt; mutton, $c to 9c per lb; lamb, Shor 12c per lb for yearlings; spring lambs, $5 July to $550 each.

STOCKS Bought and sold on New York, Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges. NEW YORK. Reported by F. H. Butler, stock broker, Masonic Temple, for The Advertiser.

H. C. Becher, stock broker, Bank of Commerce building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & New York, May 3 .- Noon .- London came higher this morning, however, arbitrage houses sold stocks, especially II. P. Of definite news to account for the weakness there was little or none, but the belief is that a good many of the stocks which had been bought on Monday in order to prevent a panic, were being carefully liquidated Certain stocks, such as Smelters, in which pools have been very active, were decidedly heavy. Commission houses business has been quieter than for some days, and as a rule they are advising their customers to pursue conservatism policy for the time being.

AN ARTISTIC TREAT

by Famous Models

Manager Bennett has booked for next week an attraction which will exceil anything as yet seen at the London Vaudeville Theater. This is the famous bronze and marble bas-reliefs of Mme. Henriette de Serirs, which have pleased the refined and cultured audiences of two continents. The living models present replicas of some of the most famous pieces and groups of sculpture in the world. They are not the cheap living pictures which have appealed to the vulgar, but they are representations of works of art, which will offend no lady patron of the London Vaudeville, and will appeal to the art lovers of London, as well as to all lovers of the truly beautiful. The act is a very costly one, and is being put on by Manager Bennett for the purpose of catering especially to the Circumstance That Caused Mr. Justi e Meredith to Decline to Hear Action.

The interesting circumstance of judge refusing to try an action because his brother is an interested party has cropped up at the present assizes. Some time ago the firm of Meredith Judd & Meredith recovered a large sum of money from the C. P. R. in an action on behalf of the late Frank Waters. Before his death, Waters as-There should be music in every home signed the money over to W. J. Burns, except the one next door.

393 RICHMOND. The Deceptive Easter Bonnet.

[Judge.] The impressive fact behind the Easter millinery is that the men are willing to stand for it. Above every other sort of evidence of man's loyalty to women folk we would place this crowning token of the generosity of male man. Generally he knows what he is getting for his money, but not when it comes to the Easter bonnet. We have seen one of this season's creations which, as it dwelt in gossaintended for, in a mist of chenille-dotted net veil, surmounted by pale lifac plume and the other fixings, we judged to be worth about $400. Then June 10, Canada Packing Company we have taken the thing in our hands and the illusion was gone, and we sized it up to be worth about 30 cents.
