LONDON, SATURDAY, AUG. 5.

THE ENEMIES OF ANGLO-AMERICAN AMITY.

If the twentieth century world were not sated with marvels, the signing of the arbitration treaties on Thursday would be as startling as it is momentous. Even as things are, the spectacle of Taft and Bryce shaking hands over the signatures stirs the imagination of every thinking citizen of all English-speaking countries, and causes to resurge in his mind warm memories and the sense of blood kinship. Particularly should this be true of Canadians, who have clearly a role to play as reconcilers.

The pity, therefore, is that there should be in this country a clique active in fomenting ill-feeling for purposes of party capital. The anti-reciprocity campaign has become in large measure an appeal against the United States. An evidence of this was furnished by the bulletin of a Toronto newspaper which announced in very large letters, "Strong Feeling Against Reciprocity: American Flags Ordered Down." While there was no connection between the reciprocity issue and the London Old Boys' decoration committee's action, and the bulletin was thus unfair to London, the conduct of this Toronto paper shows how a section of the Conservative party—not the whole party—by any means—makes the anti-reciprocity agitation a demonstration against the United States. It is particularly unfortunate that such an attitude should be shown by the party which has been a loyalist at the very moment when Great Britain is making a pact of perpetual peace with our neighbors. As usual the self-styled loyalists are false to the mother country.

There is a strong probability, however, that the dying fire of hatred is being fanned up to a last heat before the end. The sooner this line of tactics peters out and the more crushing its overthrow in the elections, the more Great Britain will feel herself supported in the new policy of friendly co-operation with the United States for peace and the world's weal.

A LACK OF CHIVALRY.
When Mr. Bourassa is accused of stirring the dogs of race prejudice, he lays his hands on his heart, and solemnly protests his undying devotion to the crown and the British Empire. When he inveighs against what he calls the Laurier Government's sacrifice of French-Canadian and Catholic rights (shades of Hyman, Laurier, Sharett, and the hierarchy, think of it!) he warns Anglo-Canadians that Quebec is the bulwark of British connection, and that it is suicidal to deny his compatriots fair play. His pet thesis is the Americanization of the West. He pretends to see forces there making for annexation, and Quebec as the most effective counterpoise.

The unalterable attachment of Quebec to British connection is denied only by the political clique in Ontario which is in temporary alliance with Mr. Bourassa. French-Canadians are not ungrateful for the privileges they enjoy under the British flag, and they are keenly aware of the institutions of the Republic. Knowing this, the attitude of Mr. Bourassa and the Nationalists toward imperial problems is inexpressibly mean and short-sighted. The British crown they admit to be the symbol and guarantee of their liberties, yet they savagely denounce a French-Canadian prime minister who asks his compatriots to make some sacrifices to preserve the integrity of the British Empire. Nationalist orators hurl insults at the mother country. England is reviled as a tyrant demanding "an impost of money and blood"—the exact words of Mr. Paquet, the Conservative member for Lislet in the late House of Commons. Mr. Bourassa and his band are acting the part of ingrates, and in their unchivalrous game they are aided by English-speaking renegades who after betraying the cause of the Canadian navy are seeking to embarrass Laurier in his efforts to carry the only practical plan of imperial naval defence. Laurier represents the true chivalry of his race, and Quebec will rally to his standard as before.

CABINET CHANGES

Some changes take place in the Ottawa cabinet next week. Hon. L. P. Brodeur, minister of marine and fisheries, goes to the supreme court, to be succeeded by Hon. R. Lemieux, who gives place as postmaster-general to Dr. H. S. Beland, member for Beauce. The retiring Minister of Marine was for some years a target for Opposition criticism, not on account of any dishonorable transactions of his own—his personal integrity is admitted by his opponents. But he inherited a department needing reorganization, and the housecleaning which he had to do was no pleasant task. He suffered, to some extent from an honest and assiduous performance of his duties. For the supreme court he has excellently qualified by his legal attainments.

Mr. Lemieux, another lawyer, of high distinction in his profession, has conducted the postal department satisfactorily, is a hard-working and successful platform-speaker, and deserves his promotion.

Dr. Beland, the new postmaster-general, is 42 years old, has been in the House of Commons for nine years, and in 1908 had the wonderful majority of 3,889, out of a total vote of 4,255. His opponent receiving only 183 votes. He holds a B.A. as well as a M.D. degree, an example of the scholar and medical practitioner in politics. It is hardly necessary to say that a man with such a hold on Beauce is popular. His personality is indeed attractive, and he has the French-Canadian gifts of eloquence and magnetism. With a personal following of friends and admirers, with experience and skill in debate, he will contribute strength to the Government. The appointment is popular as well as judicious. Dr. Beland is a man of great promise.

THE DOUBLE GAME.
He (Laurier) entered Sir Wilfrid Laurier's methods at the Imperial conference authorities that will be severely tested. He (Laurier) entered Sir Wilfrid Laurier's methods at the Imperial conference authorities that will be severely tested. He (Laurier) entered Sir Wilfrid Laurier's methods at the Imperial conference authorities that will be severely tested.

As for this marine law, it is England who demands of the Canadian Minister. It is not only an impost of money but an impost of blood. Mr. Paquet, conservative member for Lislet, Que.

The Laurier Government has evinced a deal of consideration for the United States. But it is in view of this fact that the Laurier Government has evinced a deal of consideration for the United States. But it is in view of this fact that the Laurier Government has evinced a deal of consideration for the United States.

Mr. A. H. Clark, who has consented to run again in South Essex, is a candidate to be proud of. He is an exceedingly able lawyer, a scholar, and a gentleman. His nomination is equivalent to his election.

Sonabail was a man who gave Nehemiah much trouble in his nation-building work. We have our Toronto and Montreal Sonabails, who marshall the anti-imperialists of Quebec against the nation-builder Laurier.

Mr. Archibald Hishop, of East Huron, was one of the Liberals who survived the Provincial general election of 1905. He tried for federal honors in 1908, and was defeated by only 83 majority. His friends are confident he will put East Huron into the Liberal column again.

MEANS OF SAVING.
[Life.]
New York Husband—"But, my love, it would cost us $5,000 a year to keep a machine."
New York Wife—"I know, John, but think of the money we'd save in carfare."

OF COURSE HE HEARD.
[Throne.]
Bill, the Scotch shifter, much against his will, has been "sent on" in an emergency as the duke's servant with one line to speak.
Bill—"Yer grace, his 'ighness is with-out."

A TERRIBLE POSITION.
[Exchange.]
"Nothing is worse than sitting in a barber's chair, with your mouth full of lather, watching the boy try to give another customer your Panama hat."

MISSED HER CHANGE.
[Metropolitan Magazine.]
Mr. Smith had been reading and talking nothing but "reciprocity," and his five-year-old daughter, Elsie, learned the word and appeared to take a great deal of interest in the conversation. The morning after the event, Mr. Smith greeted the family with the announcement, "Well, reciprocity passed the House yesterday."

REAL WILD WEST SHOW

IS YOUNG BUFFALO'S

Big Crowds Enjoyed Splendid Performances in Queen's Park.

Young Buffalo's Wild West Show, which appeared twice at Queen's Park Friday, is a sterling attraction, and the large crowds attending the performances were delighted beyond measure at the show.

It certainly did savor of the west and pioneer days. The ox-train, Indians—the red variety, of course, cowboys, cowgirls, small canons, and the stage coach, everything the small boys have read about in the terrifying Indian tales, even the beautiful Time Maid, were there. And it made a most attractive entertainment, and few were the complaints after it was over.

One of the best features of this entertainment was the riding of the cowboy. The troupe have some fine horses, who buck industriously, giving the spectators all sorts of thrills. "Steamboat," a very fine horse, was the best, and he gave his rider a run for his money. A mule of the Maud variety took it as a personal insult when an Indian tried to ride her, and she gave him plenty of fun for the spectators for the next few minutes.

A cowboy without a very large revolver and a well-dressed man in a suit and bow tie, and a chorus girl without jewels, and Young Buffalo saw to it that every one of them was prepared with heavy arsenals. The troupe, however, shot them off on the slightest provocation, and this of course provided great pleasure for the small boys.

There was some real shooting done, too. Curtis Light and Annie Oakley, two of the crack shots of America, gave a really remarkable exhibition of shooting. Their work was simply marvellous.

Jack can handle a rope, and Friday he thrilled the audiences with his great work. He could do almost anything with a lariat, some of his feats being almost astounding. Col. Stevens' famous 20-ox team was another feature worthy of comment. He had the bunch cut, and the oxen took to the water like a cat to milk.

The tribe of Indians was large, and they were extremely skilled. Their weird dances were much enjoyed. There were other features, too numerous to mention, as the audience would say.

It was a good clean show, well managed, and entertaining.

BUMPED AN ICEBERG
Liner Columbia Hits Mountain of Ice Midway in Atlantic.
[Canadian Press.]
New York, August 5.—"All well, everything all right and will dock early Monday morning," was the brief but reassuring wireless dispatch received to-day from Captain Macmillan of the liner Columbia, which on her way from Glasgow, bumped into an iceberg last Wednesday.

Officials of the line said that the Columbia had suffered a little more than a "push in the nose" and that there need not be the slightest alarm as to her safety. The liner has 500 passengers aboard and the news that a collision had occurred was sent by one of them to Glasgow, Scotland.

The Columbia was proceeding slowly through an ice field, about 130 miles north of Cape Cod, when at 7 o'clock when she collided with an iceberg. An examination showed that the bow had struck the iceberg, and the water line Captain Mitchell assured the passengers that there was no danger and after the inspection of the bow the Columbia proceeded.

Officers of incoming liners have reported many large bergs near the transatlantic pathway in the last week.

NEW POINT OF VIEW.
[S. E. Kiser.]
I used to think I was a fool.
He bored me every time we met;
There seemed to be but one poor note; I talked about the last one for a set.
He talked about his little son.
Till all I impolitely fled.
He told me what the child had done.
Repeated all that he had said.

GENTLE INTERCOURSE.

1,500 PEOPLE WILL PICNIC IN LONDON
Mr. H. E. Buttery Does Good Work in Securing an Excursion.
The annual picnic of the Berlin Merchants' Rubber Company will be held in this city on Aug. 18. It is expected that over 1,500 people will visit London. The manufacturers' committee have the matter in charge, and will assist in entertaining the visitors.
A committee from Berlin, composed of Messrs. A. Voelker and A. W. Young, will be in the city on Aug. 10 to make final arrangements.
The local committee will do all in their power to assist the Berlin picnic in securing proper rates and accommodation. This is one of the first big picnics of the year, and the fact that it comes here is due altogether to the interest taken in it by Mr. H. E. Buttery, and is a sample of practical boosting.
The president of the rubber company is a personal friend of Mr. Buttery's, and casually mentioned to him in a telephone conversation that the factory picnic was going to be held in London.
"Why not come to London?" suggested Mr. Buttery.
He commenced to work from that moment, and the result that the picnic will come here.
