The Silent Barrier

BY LOUIS TRACY.

In the early morning, at Basil's, he awoke, and was somewhat angry with himself when he found that his thoughts still dwelt on Helen Wynton. In the cold gray glimmer of dawn, and after the unpleasant shaking his rampered body had received all night, some of the romance of this latest quest had evaporated. He was stiff and weary, and he regretted the whim that had led him a good twelve hours astray. But he roused himself and dressed with care, putting twenty minutes past Zurich he sent an attendant to Miss Wynton's berth to inquire if she would join him for early coffee at that station, there being a wait of a quarter of an hour before the train went on to Chate.

Helen, who was up and dressed, said she would be delighted. She, too, had been thinking, and being a healthy-minded and kind-hearted girl, had come to the conclusion that her abrupt departure the previous night was wholly unbecomingly and ungraciously.

So it was with a smiling face that she awaited Helen on the steps of her carriage. She shook hands with him cordially, did not object in the least degree when he seized her hand, and, passing through a noisy crowd of foreigners, and laughing with almost cheerfulness when they both failed to find some extra-ordinary hot coffee served in glasses that seemed to be better still.

Helen had the rare distinction of being quite as bright and pleasing to the eye in the searching light of the sun's first rays as at any other hour. Her complexion was clear and healthy, her eyes were bright and intelligent, and she looked rather young, though she was nearly thirty.

"I did not sleep well," she explained. "And the cold air of the frontier on this line is worst laid in Europe."

"It is early yet," she said. "Why not turn in again when you reach your hotel?"

"I wish to go to the city," she said. "I shall wander disconsolate by the side of the lake. Please, you will miss me at breakfast. And, in the way, you will find a table specially set apart for you. I suppose you think at Zurich."

"How kind and thoughtful you are. Yes, I am going to the Engadine, you know."

"Well, give my greetings to the high Alps. I have climbed most of them in my time. More improbable things have happened than that I may reach the summit of the Matterhorn or Jungfrau. But they are far away from the valley of the Inn, and perhaps you do not mind."

"I have never had the opportunity, but I mean to try. Moreover, it is part of my undertaking."

"Then may we soon be tied to the same rope?"

Thus they parted, with cheery words.

Unable to Work for 14 Months

Complete Nervous Breakdown Left Mr. Black an Invalid—Cured by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mr. Henry Black.

What a helpless mass of flesh and bone the human body is, once the nerves become exhausted. Extreme weakness comes over you, and you lose control of the limbs. The next step is paralysis.

You will be fortunate if, like Mr. Black, you get the building-up process in action before it is forever too late. By forming new, rich blood Dr. Chase's Nerve Food carries new vigor and energy to every organ and every member of the human body.

Mr. Henry Black, 81 St. Catherine street east, Montreal, Que., writes: "The wonderful results I obtained from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food constrain me to write this letter in order that others who suffer from nervous exhaustion and weakness may use this medicine with equally satisfactory results. As the result of overwork I became completely exhausted, and was unable to work for fourteen months. As I am the father of a family, these were sad days for me, but after I had used six boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I had improved so greatly that I continued the treatment until I was completely restored to health and strength. I now work twelve to fifteen hours a day, and keep in excellent health."

send one. They know you are coming by this train."

Helen smiled. She anticipated a certain amount of cross-examination at the hands of residents in the hotel, but she saw no reason why the ordeal should begin so soon.

"I must take my luck then," she said. "There ought to be plenty of carriages at St. Moritz."

Without being positively rude, her new acquaintance could not repeat the question this shirked. But she had other shafts in her quiver.

NEW SCHEDULE OF CARTAGE RATES

Increase of From Two to Two and Half Cents Per Tonnage.

That London is receiving better rates than Toronto, Montreal, and other larger cities, from the railway cartage companies is shown by the announcement of the arrangement of a new schedule, which, as previously stated, will go into effect on Nov. 11.

The increase in London will be from 2 cents a hundred pounds to 2½ cents per hundred pounds. The other places named, however, an increase of one cent, making a rate of three cents a hundred pounds, will become operative.

It is explained that the railway cartage companies of all lines have found it necessary to take such action because of the expansion of different Canadian cities. The hauls from factories to freight houses are now very much longer than they were a few years ago, and teams are therefore unable to handle as much goods as formerly.

TRUSTEES DIVIDE

Section of Ottawa Board Approve Bilingual Regulations.

Ottawa, Oct. 23.—There is discussion in the Ottawa separate school board over the new regulations in the provincial department of education with regard to the English-French schools.

By a vote of seven to one, the English section of the board tonight decided to break away from the French section, which is opposing the regulations. There are nine French and nine English trustees, and when the matter comes before the board for final decision tomorrow night, a lively time is promised.

The resolution adopted is: "We, the English trustees in committee assembled, being of the opinion that the regulations regarding the English-French schools, hereby place ourselves on record as being opposed to the English section of the separate school board taking any part at the present time in the opposition being evinced by the French section to the said regulations."

Home Treatment for Sallow, Wrinkled Skin

A. C. F. asks: "What should I do for my fallow complexion, and how can I get rid of my wrinkles?"

Sallowness is best removed by removing the skin itself. This is effectually accomplished by the use of ordinary mercurized wax, which causes the offensive outer skin gradually to peel off, in fine particles scarcely noticeable to the naked eye. Within a week or so you will have an enviable complexion, the new skin exhibiting a healthful, youthful tint incomparable with artificial coloring. Get an ounce of this wax at your drug store, apply at night like cold cream, only don't rub it in. Wash it off in the morning with warm water.

For your wrinkles try a solution of salicylic acid, dissolved in a half pint of witch hazel. Bathe your face in this every morning for a while. The result will surprise you.

JOHNSON'S BROTHER AGAINST CHAMPION

Cheerfully Tells the Grand Jury All He Knows About Pugilist.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Charles Johnson, brother of Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, today willingly entered the federal grand jury and told all he knew regarding his brother and the white girl, Lucile Cameron, of Minneapolis, who recently was taken from the negro pugilist by her mother, Charles Johnson recently was arrested at the instigation of the champion on a charge of theft.

Young Johnson is said to have given his inquisitors important information. As he entered the jury room young Johnson was heard to declare:

"It is the hand of God. The Lord has taken this fellow in hand and is directing justice at him."

The younger Johnson, who is about half as big as the champion, seemed overjoyed at the opportunity of telling his story. He was in the jury room nearly two hours. A sister of the champion also appeared at the federal building ready to testify, but she was not called before the jury today.

Lucile Cameron-Falconett, mother of the Cameron girl, today said there had been a complete reconciliation between her daughter and herself, and the latter now was willing to disclose her own story.

A development of the case was a suit filed against Johnson by Willard Davis, a negro, for $25,000 for alleged abduction of his wife, Effie Johnson. The wife is said to have been a singer in the champion's cafe.

FLAT RATE A DREAM SAYS BECK AT BELMONT

Again Declares That Selling Power That Way Is Not Feasible.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Belmont, Oct. 23.—John Adams Beck was the principal speaker at the Conservative rally held here tonight. Mr. George W. Neely, the candidate, was present, and delivered a short address. These were the only speakers.

Mr. Beck dealt principally with Niagara power, showing the benefit this would be to the farmer. He praised the Niagara Falls and the Government for the courage they displayed in dealing with this great question, and also in settling that other dangerous problem, the bilingual school.

Mr. Beck declared that the idea of a flat rate for Niagara power was a dream and was not workable at all.

Mr. Neely spoke for some time on the Niagara power question, and declared that the local option campaign of the present Government was the logical method of dealing with the liquor question. He criticized Mr. Sutherland for having damaged the temperance platform at the eleventh hour, and asked the electors present to vote for a man who had been a consistent temperance advocate for years.

Mr. John Davies was chairman of the meeting.

NITRO-GLYCERIN BY WAGON-LOADS

McNamara Told Explosive Man Dynamite Was Not Strong Enough.

Indianapolis, Oct. 23.—How J. B. McNamara and Orville E. McNamara carried away nitro-glycerin by the wagonload, was described by Charles C. Kizer, at the trial of the accused "dynamite plotters" today.

Kizer, who now lives at Tulsa, Okla., was the manager of a plant for the manufacture of explosives at Albany, Ind., when in 1908, he said, the dynamiters began buying nitro-glycerin from him and hauling it away in wagons at night.

"One day in response to a telephone call from Indianapolis," said Kizer, "I met J. B. McNamara at Muncie. He represented himself as being George J. Clark, a contractor of Peoria, Ill., and said he wanted nitro-glycerin to blow up some ditches near Indianapolis. He said he had tried dynamite, and it was not strong enough. I agreed to sell him 20 quarts, and I delivered it to a farm three miles from Albany, on the road to Muncie. A month later he bought 30 quarts. I did not hear anything from him until a year later, when he and McNamara bought 120 quarts. When I took it to the farm they had two rigs waiting, and had prepared twelve boxes in which to pack the cans. Afterwards I wrote to Clark at the address given at Peoria, but the letter was returned."

EMPIRE NATURALIZATION

Sir Edward Grey Plans to Make New Canadian a Full Britisher.

London, Oct. 23.—The question of the peculiar anomalies of the naturalization laws was raised in the Commons last night, when Sir Edward Grey declared that persons naturalized in Canada did not thus become British subjects in the strict sense of the term, they only being naturalized as within the limits of the Dominion.

Sir Edward said those inequalities had been recognized, and a measure will be introduced during the present session which will seek a uniform law for the whole empire.

MAY NOT RECOVER

St. Mary's Woman Was Despondent Over Failure to Get Work.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Edmonton, Oct. 23.—At the Conservative rally held here last night Hon. James Duff, minister of agriculture, dealt very briefly with the outstanding issue raised by Mr. N. W. Rowell, the Liberal leader, namely, the abolition of the bar.

The minister did not deem it necessary to discuss the question on its merits, but dismissed it with the statement that it was not feasible nor possible. He paraded the virtues of the Government at great length, and asked the electors to support the administration because of its record.

Addresses were delivered by Mr. A. H. Musgrove, M. P. for East Huron, and Mr. A. K. Grier, of Algoma.
