100 PER PAIR AT ALL DRUGGISTS

Put sugar and water in sauce pan and put over a slow fire. Bring to the boiling point. As the sugar melts in-crease the heat. Boil until syrup cracks when tried in cold water.

Add vinegar just before removing from the fire. Spread peanuts on an olled platter and pour over the syrup. Mark in squares when firm enough to crease and cut when hard.

Nougat.

One cup confectioner's sugar, ½ cup honey (comb and all), 2 cups bleached almonds, 2 egg whites, wafer paper. Line a pan with heavy white paper and cover with wafer paper. Wafer paper may be purchased at any confec-tioner's. Put sugar, honey and egg whites in a perfectly smooth pan. Stir over a slow fire until the mixture thickens and becomes white. Try in cold water. When a drop keeps its shape and is firm to touch remove from fire and stir in the almonds.

Dredge a marble slab with confec tioner's sugar and turn the nougat on it. Form in a ball. Fit into the pan, press flat, cover with wafer paper, weight and let stand until cold. Cut and wrap in ofled paper.

Molasses Taffy.

One cup molasses, 2 cups brown sugar, 1 teaspoon vinegar, 1 tablespoon squares. Dip in powdered sugar.

Peanut Brittle.

Two cups brown sugar, ½ cup water, large cut in cold water. Remove from fire and stir in soda. Stir until thick and pour into a well-buttered pan. Let stand until and cut in squares.

Chocolate Caramels. One pound loaf sugar, 3 squares bit-One pound loar sugar, 3 squares out-ter chocolate, 1 cup cream, 1 cup milk, ½ cup corn syrup, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Dissolve sugar in milk. Add corn syrup and cream. Bring slowly to the ling point. Shave chocolate and add just enough hot water to melt it. Stir into first mixture. Boll slowly until a hard ball is formed when tried in cold water. The ball should be very firm. Pour into well-buttered tins and cut when cold with a buttered knife.

D.S.C.R. Dance Is Jolly Event

Christmas Decorations Make Gay Set-ting For "At Home" in Winter Gardens.

The holiday spirit of mirth and goodwill prevaded the D. S. C. R. dance held Friday evening in the Winter Garden. an "at home" for the members of the staff and their friends. The big hall was gay with Christmas decorations, quantities of evergreens, red and green streamers, Christmas bells and holly, the lights under the hanging gardens down the length on either side shaded alter-nately in red and green. The novelty feature on the stage of this occasion was a miniature waterfall, on which the spotlight played, bringing out the pris-matic colors. Cosy sitting-rooms were arranged at the north end, while the south eide, screened off by lattice work and greenery, was converted into an irviting supper room. The orchestra was at its best, providing music that was irresistable.

WELCOME ROSEMARY. Dear Miss Grey,-It is with pleasure that I have been reading the Mall-Box for some time, so thought I would write when I could be of some help. I noticed where some one has asked for the song, "Let the Rest of the World Go By." I have copied it and am sending it along. I noticed that Busy Bee has red and yellow dahlia bulbs that she will send to anyone want-Ing them. As I haven't any and am very fond of flowers, would be very glad to receive them. I have double red hoffyhook and sweet William seed and if Busy Bee would like some I shall gladly mail them to her. DID MUTT KILL JEFF? Dear Miss Grey,-it is a long time since I wrote to the Mail-Box, but as it is near Christmas, I thought I would wish you a merry Christmas. Could you tell me where Mutt and Jeff have gone to? Did Mutt do away with Jeff and then die of sorrow? Or did they go down south for the winter? When will they be back? We miss their smil. could you send me some croche patterns for yokes and for scarf ends or table drapes? Well I will get out before I'm put out.

She compared the federation of the Institutes to the conferation of the provinces of the Dominion of Canada, and said it was for the same purposes helping one another. Dr. Hill, superintendent of public health of London, spoke on "Public Health," in which he sketched the rapid strides made by the medical profession towards the stamping out of diseases since the discovery of germs in 1860, among these, yellow fever, ty phoid, smallpox and tuberculosis. Dealing with the subject of social hygiene, he urged the great importance of promoting educational and medical work along this line. Mrs. John Mac fle, district president, presided.
