Mrsfl E. B. Smith Is Appointed Convener of New Organization.

A London auxiliary to the Candian National Institute for the Blind was organized at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., with Mrs. E. B. Smith as convener The committee will be appointed later This work has long been attracting the interest of the women of London and a plan for such an auxiliary has been under way for some time.

Mrs. A. E. Miller occupied the chair for the first time since her election to the regency in March. A large amount of interesting business was transacted, including the appointment of Mrs. F. J. Greenaway as convener of the work in India, and Mrs. Ross Thomas, convener of the child welfare work. Mrs. Greenaway read an interesting letter from one of the regents of the India I. O. D. E., showing the conditions which confront the work in that country.

A representative of the Lions club was present to ask the support of the chapter for the large bridge and euchre to be held in the Winter Garden on April 30 in aid of a new bandstand for Victoria Park. The bandstand for Victoria Park. The members promised their help in the matter of arranging tables and small parties for the event. The Kiwanis club asked that the I. O. D. E. cooperate in arranging plans for a public celebration on Empire Day, and Mrs. Ralph Miller, municipal
