

SALMON REGULATIONS

Blundering in the New Set for Which Responsibility Cannot Be Fixed.

Mr. Maxwell Taken to Task for His Reluctance Before His Constituents.

On Thursday morning representatives of the fishing industry and others gathered at the board of trade, Vancouver, to discuss the proposed regulations of the British Columbia Salmon Packers' Association, to take part in an important conference with the British Columbia members of parliament. The senators had also been asked to attend, but were unable to do so. It was not until noon that the meeting began.

The chairman said the canners of British Columbia were menaced by new regulations, and that the fishermen, who were the only ones who could be expected to support the regulations, were being treated with a view to their being removed before irreparable damage was done. The canners had been unable to get the regulations passed, and the fishermen were being treated with a view to their being removed before irreparable damage was done. The canners had been unable to get the regulations passed, and the fishermen were being treated with a view to their being removed before irreparable damage was done.

Every applicant for a fishery license shall be (a) a British subject, resident in Canada, and (b) a bona fide fisherman, as defined in the regulations. The regulations shall be enforced by the inspectors of fisheries, who shall be empowered to search for and seize any fish or fishery gear found in violation of the regulations. The regulations shall be enforced by the inspectors of fisheries, who shall be empowered to search for and seize any fish or fishery gear found in violation of the regulations.

CLAUSE VIII. Any boat found engaged in salmon fishing operations having a boat-puller, shall be liable to a fine of $100, and the boat-puller shall be liable to a fine of $50, and the boat shall be forfeited to the government.

CLAUSE IX.
