YOUNG TORONTO DOCTOR SUICIDES

Shoots Self Through Heart on Board Cunard Liner Ausonia On High Seas—No Reason Given.

Quebec, July 30—A tragedy on the high seas was reported on Saturday afternoon with the arrival of the Cunard liner Ausonia at this port and was to the effect that a young doctor D. E. Lang of Toronto, 33 years of age, had been discovered in his cabin on Thursday last, shot through the heart, and clutching a revolver in his hand.

On the way across the ocean, according to officers of the liner, the late Doctor Lang appeared to be normal in every way, and was apparently in the best of spirits.

It was noticed that he attended his meals regularly, and spent most of values.

the time about the decks. Thursday morning, contrary to he usual habits, the doctor did not a pear for breakfast. Later a sear was instituted, but he could not of found on deck. His cable was the visited, as it was thought that had fallen ill and was in need medical attention. Persistent knoeing on the cabin door brought response, so the chief steward of tiliner, Mr. E. R. Leake, entered to room, and to his horror saw the lift less body stretched out on a sofa semi-clothed condition, and lying
