B. S. Iron Trade.

From The Wall-street News.

Scarcely any change is visible in the condition of the iron trade. There is no improvement when it maint of activity or in projects. of ther in point of activity or in prices. Con-siderable is said about the large railroad buildsiderable is said about the large railroad building for the expired portion of the year, and conclusions are drawn from it that upwards of 12,000 miles of railroad will be the sum of the construction this year. The contracts for steel rails tells a decidedly different story, and evidences are not wanting that $30 is the best rate obtainable at the Eastern mills. In price of pig iron there has been a further general shading, and business is so light that more furnaces are going out of blast. As a matter of fact the record shows that out of twenty-one first-class furnaces in the district from Conschoolcan to Pottsville, Pennsylvania, which were in operation a month ago. com Conshoholden to Fotisville, Fennsyl-ania, which were in operation a month ago, leven have closed down. Among them is the closeon furnace, the Mount Laurel, and the facungle furnaces, among the largest in the county. The pace is telling heavily on the iron nasters of the entire country.
