"A Flag of Truce" was produced at the Grand last evening before a large and critical audience. It is a five-act farce comedy, dealing with an old subject—the love of one man for another man's wife, and the villainy of the scoundrel, who endeavors to gain the object of his affections, is the principal feature of the play, without sketching the plot of the play it is sufficient to say that it is full of dramatic incident and situations which are made the most of by the very capable company presenting it. It would be hard to individualize, as every member of the company is excellent in their respective parts. Charles Lethian was seen to advantage at the Grand a few weeks ago in the "Grand a

George Thatcher's "Tuxedo." On next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday tenings and Wednesday matinee George Thatcher and his merry company will appear at the Academy in that highly successful minstrel farce-comedy creation, "Tuxedo" has proven a decidedly popular entertainment because of its successful union of two of the best liked forms of amusement—ministrelsy and farce-comedy.

To the President and members of the To-ronto Ministerial Association :

MR. PRESIDENT AND SIRS, -From the po sition you have assumed you would appear ition you have assumed you would appear to be the exponents of the Word of God. I, who am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribes of Judah, a Jew, beg to call in question your authority for that assumption and to ask you who gave you that authority. The Word of God teaches that the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord God of Israel, Jehovah, which He commanded His people Israel to remember and to keep it holy. You by your practice say that it is the first day, or Sunday, and you seek to compel the people of this city to believe a lie. The Word of God, John xiii., 34, 35, a new commandment, That ye love one another, etc., you practice by seeking to proselytize men from one sect (or church) to another and teach them to observe, for doctrine, the commandments of men by joining each sect every time. The Word of God says, John x., 28, I give unto my sheep eternal life, and they shall never perish, etc., you interpret by excommunicating the member who does not continue to attend your meeting. At least one of your sects, the Baptist, I know do so. The Lord Jesus Christ gave a commission to His disciples, Mark xvi., 15, 16, which work was completed by him, Col. i., 2, 3. And I call upon you to the steep of the commandment of the call upon you to the steep of this called Saul of Tarsus, Acts ix., 15, which work was completed by him, Col. i., 2, 3. And I call upon you to the steep of the seventh day is the Sabbath of the word of God says.

It is effects were wonderful. In guins which I had been "troubled with so long. Words cannot describe the admiration "troubled with so long. The various denominational ministerial associations met at their respective rooms yesterday morning.

At the meeting of the Baptist ministers, Rev. Dr. Hooper in the chair, the question of competitive examinations in the Sunday Schools of this city was introduced by Rev. Schools of this city was introduced by Kev.

S. S. Bates, who said that the ignorance of many scholars about the Word of God was deplorable. Revs. Messrs. Harris, Denovan, Alexander Parker, Dyke and Grant took part in the ensuing discussion, in which no material objection was raised to which no material objection was raised to Rev. Mr. Bates' position.

"Methods of Church Work" was the paper read by Rev. R. M. Burns at the meeting of the Methodiss clergymen. The subject was discussed by all present, including Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, the evangelists. Rev. Hugh Johnston was present to bid his many friends farewell previous to his departure for Washington.

The subject for the next meeting, March 13, is "Some Things that Greatly Hinder

Mr. Mackie and his company in their several specialties. Like the majority of farces it has no plot and might bear any name. Mr. Mackie was at his best in the role of Billy Grimes, his funny sayings and songs and his funny make-up delighting the audience. Miss Nina Bertolini made an excellent soubrette, she dances and sings in a way calculated to please any audience. Miss Very acceptable as Josiah Grimes. The piece is full of fun and comic songs, dances, etc., and will be repeated every evening this week, including Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday matinees.

Cilarke Wallace, Comptroller of Customs, has written replying to the resolution passed by the Loyal Orange Brothstands and the comptroller says that such brotherhood has no connection, whatever, with the Loyal Orange Association. Feeble and unsuccessful efforts have been made to give life to such an organization by certain persons, who were suspended or expelled from the Orange Association. The untruthfulness of the statements is only equalled by the vileness of their language. Mr. Wallace points out that the R.C. population of Canada is exactly five-twelfths of the total. He adds: "Though in office only eleven weeks, I have received personal congratulatory resolutions from more than 1000 Orange lodges and their representatives, while the lodges that have expressed dissent are less than half a dozen all told."
