HARRIS & CO. PROPRIETORS.

WATFORD, DECEMBER 27, 1912.

Baird-Adams.

A pretty home wedding of Thursday evening, Nov. 7, was that of Miss La Verne Adams and R. Allan Baird. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Joseph Christensen in the presence of the immediate family and friends who had gathered at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. W. Adams.

All present sat down to an enjoyable wedding supper, after which the evening was spent in games and music.

Mr. and Mrs. Baird will live at 4484 South Fifth East, and will be at home to their friends after Nov. 15th. The above is copied from one of the newspapers of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mr. Baird is an old Warwick boy and we all join in congratulations.

From Old Subscribers.

Thos. L. Swift, of Calgary, writes the Editor:

"In making a contract with you to write me regularly each week informing me of the happenings in and around Watford for the coming year, on the basis of the enclosed one dollar, I consider that I am getting more value than for any investment of a much greater amount. The Guide is a loyal exponent of the town in which it lives and merits well the liberal support which it receives."

Thanks, friend, for your expression of appreciation. We have many subscribers who are of the same opinion as yourself, yet are not so prompt in making the annual remittance.—Ed.

Legal Notes.

At the High Court, London, on Saturday, the following cases were heard:—Bissett, Brooke, vs. Macabees of the World. An order was made on consent transferring this action from Sarnia to London for trial. W. E. Fitzgerald, of Watford, for the motion.

Re the estate of Mary Warner, Adelaide, deceased, an order was made the official guardian consenting for the payment into court by the executors of certain monies, the property of two infants. W. E. Fitzgerald for the motion.
