

literary work of various kinds, preparing books for publishing houses and contributing to the magazines, &c. He assisted Henry J. Morgan in the publication of his "Annual Registers." He contributed to Forest and Stream articles on an Outing in Newfoundland among the Carriboos, to St. Nicholas and Wide Awake stories and sketches, and he prepared for Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly a series of articles on "Canada since Confederation." Later he removed to New York, where he died a couple of years ago. His widow, a daughter of the late Dr. Murphy, resides in Fredericton.

Information for Intending Settlers. Fredericton, 1879. [See Adams, Hon. M.]

Life and Times of the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald. Toronto, Rose Publishing Co., 1893, cloth, pp. 642. [Dedicated to Prof. Goldwin Smith, LL. D., D. C. L.]

Canada Under the Administration of Lord Lorne. Toronto, Rose Pub. Co., 1884, cloth, pp. 563.

A Sketch of the Life of Lord Lansdowne. Toronto, 1884 (?)

The Story of a Greenland Girl. Toronto, 1884.

The Story of Louis Riel, the Rebel Chief. Toronto, J. S. Robertson & Bros., 1885, cloth, pp. 192.

Annette the Metis Spy. A Story. Toronto, 1886.

Condanimé, M. de la.

A Geographical History of Nova Scotia, containing an account of the Situation, Extent and Limits thereof, as also the various struggles between England and France for its possession, with an accurate description of the Bays, Harbors, Lakes, Rivers, etc., and of the manners and customs of the Indian inhabitants. 1749.

Connolly, Cornelius, of Jacksontown, N. B.

What is Man? or Thoughts on the Origin, Nature and Destiny of Man. St. John, Barnes & Co., 1868, pp. 53.

Cooney, Rev. Robert, D. D., was born at Dublin, June 24, 1800, and came to New Brunswick in 1824. He located on the Miramichi and was for three years chief clerk in a mercantile house. He was also for a time connected with the Northumberland "Gleaner." He had been brought up in the Roman Catholic faith, but in 1831 he was converted to Protestantism and joined the Methodist body. He became a minister of that church and was located at various places in the provinces. From 1849 to 1852 he had pastoral oversight of Centenary Church, St. John, and he was described as a powerful preacher and popular lecturer. He frequently occupied the platform of Mechanics' Institute, and he always drew large houses. A little later he removed to Upper Canada.

Compendious History of the Northern Part of the Province of New Brunswick and of the District of Gaspé in Lower Canada. Halifax, "Nova Scotian" office, 1832. [Dedicated to Joseph Cunard, Esq., one of the members of the Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick.]

The Glory of the God of Israel Displayed. Halifax, 1836, pp. 34.

The Judgment Seat of Christ; a Sermon, preached in the Wesleyan Chapel at Guysborough, on Sunday, 7th of January, 1848. Halifax, William Cunnebell, 1838, pamph., pp. 23.

The Lord is on Our Side; a Sermon delivered in the Wesleyan Chapel, Odelltown, Nov. 9, 1839, being the first anniversary of the battle fought at the above place between the Insurgents and the Loyal Volunteers. Montreal, 1840. [Dedicated to Lieut.-Col. Taylor, C. B., and the officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of LaCoe, Odelltown and Hemmingford Volunteer Corps.]

The Autobiography of a Wesleyan Missionary, (formerly a Roman Catholic), containing an account of his Conversion from