Franklin Falls, May 11th : « I wish to thank Almighty God, His Blessed Mother and St. Anne for helping me when I was sick and weak from an internal disease which had cost me many dollars. I promised to go to her Shrine and to publish it in the Annals. I went twice and had two high Masses sung, but I neglected to have it published. I now do so and beg to be forgiven. » M^{rs} J. K.

Halifax, N. S., March 7th : « Last August I sent three petitions to the Shrine of St. Anne, promising that if she obtained the favors I asked, I would have it published in the Annals. One request was for the recovery of my brother who was suffering much from the effects of malaria ; thanks to the intercession of St. Anne, he is now quite well. The other request, which was also for a temporal favor has been partly granted, and I feel confident that before long I shall be called upon to express my gratitude once more. May the devotion to St. Anne increase day by day. » A child of Mary.
