PARIS, June 23d.

The Ministerial evening journal says.-- "For the last two days there has been a talk of arrests having been made during the 19th, to defeat an alleged plot against the life of the King. Arrests have been made; but we are authorised to declare that, up to this evening, the information obtained by the authorities do not give to those arrests that character and degree of seriousness which has been supposed to attach to them."

With reference to the rumoured design on the life of the King, upon the occasion of the ball of Monday evening, the Journal de Paris gives the following narrative:—"On Sunday two sub-officers repaired to the staff of the Palace, and stated that for several days they, as well as several of their comrades, had been warmly solicited to enter into a conspiracy against the life of the King. They also gave the name and address of the person whom they regarded as the principal agent in the matter. Provided with this information, the Police visited the residence of the person pointed out, where they found him with four other persons, all of whom they arrested. The customary search being made, they found fire-arms, cartridges, and powder all ready for use. In consequence of this discovery, an examination was commenced, and all the necessary precautions taken. It was, we are assured, in consequence of these precautions, that the King left the Hotel de Ville an hour earlier than at first intended, and returned to the Tuilleries by a different route from the one which he took in going to the ball.

We learn from Copenhagen that the King of Denmark is again suffering severely from illness, and that his death is apprehended. The camps of Rensburg and Gluckstadt have been countermanded.

We have the following of the 12th inst. from Vienna:—"The Emperor, who has been for some time slightly indisposed, went to-day to inspect the railroad of Ferdinand, which received his entire approbation. The works are proceeding with great rapidity. Several thousand workmen are employed, and it is thought that in the autumn it will be possible to travel upon this railroad for an extent of two miles."

COLONIAL.

[From the Montreal Vindicator.]

We learn from the Quebec (French) Gazette that the Hon. Mr Papineau, in company with Messrs Lafontaine, Girouard, and Letourneau, members of the Assembly, visited the college of St. Anne, District of Quebec, on the 25th ult. Two flags were hoisted on the top of the hall court, on the occasion. A salute was also fired from a piece of Artillery, amidst loud cheers, hurrahs, and applause, in honor of the man whose person is every where so dearly revered. The Students got a holiday, in honor of this visit. We scarcely know a country whose youth are so thoroughly patriotic as are those of Lower Canada. It is providential that such is the case, for that country which they so dearly love will soon require the assistance of her children of all ages.

FAMINE IN UPPER CANADA.—We learn from the Hamilton Express, that Allan McNab, Esq. has called a public meeting at the Court House, to take into consideration 'the poverty, and destitution under which the Emigrants are at present suffering.'

The same paper states that it has received lamentable accounts from the country. Whole families of settlers are depending on the precarious gathering of edibles for a subsistence.—What a frightful commentary on Sir Francis

Head's letter to the English Poor-Law Commissioners to send out the paupers!

We regret to learn that the fly has appeared in many fields of wheat in this district, in consequence of which the crop will, it is feared, fall off fully one third.

We noticed the arrival from Newfoundland of a large sum of Specie for the Branch of the Bank of British North America in this city and we are informed that advices have been received of further shipments of the same precious metal to a large amount, have been made from London for that Institution.—Quebec Paper.

Since the failure of the three great American Houses in London, the Bank of British North America has protected and paid the drafts of the City Bank of St. John, N. B. and the Bank of New Brunswick.—Halifax Journal.
