

peace, and we should be careful to let our light so shine that others, seeing it, may be attracted thereby, and made to think of these things. Each one of us should be careful to deal justly with his neighbor, for, as was said before, "As are the people, so is the government," and when there is a desire for justice on both sides, arbitration will be the only method of settlement.

If each believer in arbitration will do all he can to forward the cause, the time cannot be long till it is the recognized policy of our country, and when war is abolished between Christian nations, we shall have made one of the longest strides in the history of the world toward that time foretold by the prophet, when "The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them."—(Isaiah xi., 6).

Make but few explanations. The character that cannot defend itself is not worth vindicating.—F. W. Robertson.

If there is anything that keeps the mind open to angel visits and repels the ministry of evil, it is a pure human love.—N. P. Willis.
