

THE QUEBEC JOCKEY AND TANDEM CLUB.

We would caution our Livery stable keepers to be careful of their dealings with D.B.S with the glass goggles. A pup of no enviable notoriety. Thin whiskers, light weight being 10 lbs, not fighting weight gold mining dont pay, what are shares worth 1st December.—Not worth much. Dont buy the Star Deb.

LOCAL ITEMS,

ENCOURAGE LOCAL TRADE.

Gentlemen or carters wishing to either purchase or repair their vehicles would do well to call at Mr. McKnight's Coach factory 19 St. Stanislas street, he is prepared to be liberal with a fair show as to payment. Call at the Show Rooms, Fabrique St. and every Lady and gentleman can please themselves. Ben Rolph in his usual bland manner will show the goods and receive orders.

AMENDE HONORABLE; We regret that owing to some mistake, the name of a most amiable young lady happened to be republished in our first issue the item had been sent by a contributor, but the Editor had decided to suppress the lady's name before handing it to the compositor; unfortunately however, the latter got it set to type and inserted without our knowledge, for which we repeat our utmost regrets, as we are fully determined never to mention ladies names in our jokes.

FACTS NOT GENERALLY KNOWN.

Bread drivers as Bank messengers.

James McCorkell (a very good fellow by the way) furnishes all the vacancies in banks or other public offices with messengers from his cast off drivers to wit; Donald Fraser, looney Montreal Bank, John Banks, of the Quebec, Gendron of the Stadacona, poor Plunket of the Union happens to be only a grocer not his fault poor fellow. We met him in Levis the other day and could scarcely recognise him. Pity he is so thick.

That his worship Owen Murphy has got a new coat and a long coat which are lined inside with squired tails.

N. B. Maurice Enright contemplates getting one on the same pattern, but not quite so long.

"I'M PLAIN PAT HENCHLEY"

Bone and Sinew, wants no favours from any man, "will support an independant ticket, all through the piece, we believe his next Moove is to place the proposed grav-ing dock on the site laid out for the New Market hall, outside John's Gate. We want some more men like Pat in the City Council if it was only for the sake of argu-ment. City Council business is generally dull, stale and unprofitable.

We ope Pat wont be vexed as we mean to flatter him.

If any of our Lady Readers want to look handsome as of course they do here is a sure recipe. Fat meat one a day, Pickles once a week and Candy balls once a year plenty of sleep, a good wash in the morning walk five miles every day in thick soles and you will have no need of Paint or Powder.

We give to Cæsar his due we got this note from the editor of the Budget he is not a bad fellow. After all only a little innocent in his cups.

The Hon. W. Quin hick named "Brocky"—Head. Commissioner of woods and Forests and all-cullers that we know desires that the boys should look out for Tom malone Deal, Stave, and Square timber Culler as he, is a dangerous acquaintance and don't buy the Quebec star. He is under the direct supervision of that celebrated M. D. who recommend rope's end application as remedy for stag-nation of the flood Tom, don't forget that twelve foot square shanty in "wolves Cove.

The Cullers office is also furnished with a Lynx-eyed inspector of the Fraser clan.

A Horseman without renown tried to run for City councillor, but the people of St. Louis Ward did not like the smell of Jewish Pork. Dear John if the military had stopped here, and you had followed your own old business of cleaning stoves, sweeping chim-ney's, etc., we would have supported your cause you man of green and golds spurs Exgrand martial of the Horn without a sound. Oh! Butt's of the Home Rule League send your compliments to the great "Fitz Bryand Boru" King of Eustache Street.

OYSTERS OYSTERS.

John Murphy can accommodate his nu-merous Irish friends with the bevale in any shape. If not there himself there will be always a competent person on hand to serve his customers.

EMIGRATION OFFICE CUL DE SAC STREET.

Poor Larry is chief and his sub is Doyle—who fell us Love with Miss Rye and Miss McPherson. Importers of the street Arabs of the Old Country. But Mr. Editor you are probably not aware that the cele-brated Doyle, of Ticket fame, wrote a book in direct opposition to the importation of such people, or as he termed them Vagrants, for which service the Liberal Government co going to present each of them with a leather medal with the inscription.

HELP THE POOR.

Mr. Glackmeyer N. P. of Beauport has recently sued his farming boy for selling his butter milk whitout his order, which cost the poor boy eleven dollars, and the receiver M. Derouin 20. dollars and costs said costs to be $2, without action being taken in the make him, or any other man found infringing on the Butter milk Busi-ness will be prosecuted, according to Law.

We thank our German Correspond for the information on star.

From our Levis Correspondent.

George Thompson grocer, Levis has not any objection to see his name in print. George can give and take a joke, there is some pleasure in being acquantee with a man like him. He has good Habitant apples and Labrador Beef steak (two eyed) for sale. These articles were not purchased in jobs lots or heel taps, but are guaranteed to be of the finest quality.

While writing about Thompson. We must say that the name is getting plentiful on the South shore. However we can't have too much of a good thing except Molasses.

The Ferry Company have raised the fare for crossing to fifteen cents, all in the space of twelve hours. Certainly a good way to encourage traffic to Levis. We want an opposition Boat.

We are sorry to learn that the Barque Rissy Sun owned by them, is not rising but more approprialy might be called the setting sun.

That McAvoy the Tailor has emigra-ted to Levis where he intends to transmo-grify the natives into seemingly good look-ing citizens the thanks of the public are due to our friends Mc.

Good man enough.
