at Newcastle.

THE harbor at Whitby is being deepened.

WHITBY is shipping apples to Great Britain, and horses to the United States.COUNTERFEIT $4 bills, of the Dominion Bank, and counterfeit $10s, of the Ontario Bank, are said to be in circulation in Western Ontario.A RICH mine of hematite iron ore has been found, it is stated, near Mississippi station on the Kingston & Pembroke Railway.The population of Yorkville, known as the northern suburb of Toronto, is given at 4,739 by the last assessment return.A NEW Australian delicacy is finding its way into the London market: dried kangaroo tongues, cured by drying in smoke.A CORRESPONDENT of the Gazette enlarges on the inducements which Sherbrooke affords for a tannery; hemlock bark and hides are easily obtained there, he says, and a good property is awaiting a tanning tenant.AN order for 125 organs to be shipped to Britain, is being filled, we understand, by the Dominion Organ Co., Bowmanville. That place has voted a bonus of $5,000 to the concern, which is enlarging its buildings.THE Directors of the North German Lloyd's Steam-ship Company have decided to refuse transportation on their vessels to the class of heavy French silks, which are so weighted with chemicals and oils as to cause danger of spontaneous combustion.BURGLARIES are becoming too common to be pleasant in Eastern Ontario, and the points of depredation indicate that they are being committed by one gang. Costello's dry-goods shop in Belleville was relieved of nearly $1,000 worth of silk goods on Sunday week. P. McCallum & Son's premises in the same town was relieved on Sunday last of $2,000 worth of silks and silk handkerchiefs. Residences in Westwood, Peterboro' and Bobcaygeon have all been broken into and robbed.
