ATHLETICS.

Boxing.

Owing to the limited time available, only one bout was pulled off, and this ended almost as soon as it began. Buck McKinnon and Kid Lepine, two stalwart M.P.'s were the principles. In the first round McKinnon led right and left for the head and missed both. Lepine led right and left for the body but connected with Mac's beautiful molars. Mac retaliated with a right hand haymaker and Lepine forgot to duck.

Evidently our Sporting Reporter did not think much of the second round for he dismisses it with the non committal comment "much the same as the first". The Referee was strictly neutral and declared the affair a draw.

One-half mile Relay Race.

There were two entries in this event,—"C" Coy. vs. the Depot. The teams were:—

"C" Coy.: F. B. White, G. M. Smith, T. McCullough, G. Lancaster.

Depot: E. Lefebvre, B. J. Fraelie, W. Patterson, L. Cooper.

This event was won by "C" Coy. by a safe margin.

100 yard dash.—1st, F. White; 2nd, E. Lefebvre; 3rd, T. McCullough. Time, 11 secs.

As usual the band of the Canadian Engineers was much in evidence, and charmed the crowd with a selection of brilliant numbers.

All in all the afternoon's sport was a thorough success, and as the crowd slowly filed out through the gates, the remark was frequently heard,—"Leave it to the Engineers."

O, YOU BASE COY!

With diffidence and a becoming sense of our presumption, we ran the blockade of grim picquets outside of Room 72, and timidly edged our way through the crowd. It was a remarkable gathering,—N. C. O.'s, Sappers and Attachés of all sorts,—every one in fact except Ikey. When we entered, the Great General Staff was holding a heated argument on that prolific topic,— "Why is a Parade Stake".

Taking our courage in both hands and hanging on tight, we ventured the query,— "Any nice little jokes this morning for "Knots and Lashings"?"

From behind the parapet of papers and documents came the answer, swift and unhesitating,— "Base Company"!

ANOTHER EPIDEMIC.

With the near approach of the departure of the Draft, we regret to announce that a serious epidemic has again broken out among the "Grandmothers" of those whose names appear on the nominal roll of the Draft Company. Truly, it is those who remain behind who suffer most.

We respectfully urge the men of the Engineer Training Depot to patronize our advertisers. They are helping us. Let us reciprocate.

Standpipes

The most nearly automatic and least troublesome are the ones you want.
