Counting on the Future

The B. C. Electric believes in Vancouver, as the development of 84,000 horsepower of electrical energy and the building of 286 miles of electric railway on the Mainland indicates.

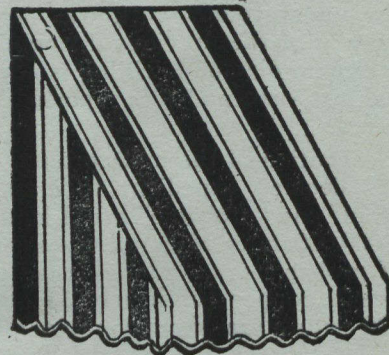

We stand ready by low rates to assist the establishment of industries here.

Our staff of experts will advise manufacturers on ways in which they may make their plants more productive.

We will gladly co-operate in making Vancouver and surrounding districts a more prosperous community.
