

ARTICLE 12 (Cont'd)

sympathetic consideration shall be given to applications for short notice filing, particularly if effected for the purpose of matching tariffs. Any proposed tariff shall be filed by a designated airline with the aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties in such a form as the aeronautical authorities of each Contracting Party may require. If within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt the aeronautical authorities of one Contracting Party have not notified the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party that they are dissatisfied with the tariff submitted to them, such tariff shall be considered to be accepted or approved and shall come into effect on the date stated in the proposed tariff. In the event that a shorter period for the submission of a tariff is permitted by the aeronautical authorities, they may also agree that the period for giving notice of dissatisfaction be less than thirty (30) days.

- (4) If a tariff cannot be established in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article or if during the period applicable, in accordance with paragraph 3 of this Article, a notice of dissatisfaction has been given, the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties shall endeavour to determine the tariff by agreement between themselves. Consultations between the aeronautical authorities will be held in accordance with Article 18 of this Agreement.
- (5) If the aeronautical authorities cannot agree on the determination of a tariff under paragraph 4 of this Article, either Contracting Party may require that the dispute be settled in accordance with the provisions of Article 19 of this Agreement.
