

Farmers and Others Awaiting Returns: Benefits similar to out-of-work benefits and subject to similar limitations may be paid to those engaged in farming or other business on their own account while awaiting returns from their enterprise.

Educational Benefits: Maintenance benefits and student fees may be paid to those who resume education interrupted by their enlistment. Students are required to enter a university within 15 months after discharge, and the period for which benefits may be paid is determined by the length of service of the student.

Post-Graduate Courses: Post-graduate courses may be given, with maintenance, in approved cases.

Pensions: Any disability arising or heightened during service is pensionable if the applicant saw service in a theatre of actual war, and any disability arising as a direct result of service is pensionable regardless of where the applicant served. Advocates are provided to assist pensioners in presenting their claims.

Employment Service: Under the Unemployment Insurance Act a Dominion Government employment service has been instituted with employment offices in all main centres across Canada.

Preference in Employment: Preference in employment is provided in all war contracts to those who have served in the armed forces.
