Fees

No fees shall be charged for the application of this Agreement. However, if deemed justified for the administration of this Agreement, each State Party reserves the right to introduce a fee for the application of this Agreement. Such a decision shall be communicated to the other State Party through diplomatic channels. In such a case, the other State Party may impose a fee on the basis of reciprocity.

Entry and Stay

1. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each State Party shall issue to the other State Party's qualifying citizens a document granting entry and stay in its territory for a period of a maximum 12 months and stating the reason for the stay. In the case of Canada, this document shall consist of a letter of introduction and, if applicable, a visa; in the case of the Slovak Republic, this document shall consist of a long-term visa with reference to this Agreement.

2. The access documents described in the preceding paragraph shall be issued to qualifying citizens by the other State Party's diplomatic mission or consular post where the application was submitted pursuant to Article 3.

Authorization to Work

1. Slovak citizens qualifying to benefit from the application of this Agreement and who have been issued a letter of introduction and, if applicable, a visa pursuant to Article 5, paragraph 1, shall receive, upon their arrival in Canada and without reference to the labour market situation, a work permit valid throughout the entire territory of Canada and for the duration of their authorized stay.

2. Canadian citizens qualifying to benefit from the application of this Agreement and who have been issued a long-term visa referring to this Agreement pursuant to Article 5, paragraph 1, shall be authorized to take up employment anywhere within the territory of the Slovak Republic without reference to the labour market situation and without a work permit during the valid period of such visa.
