

The House resumed the consideration of the Report Stage of Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the Customs Tariff and the National Defence Act, as reported with amendments from the Standing Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs.

By unanimous consent, notice of amendment numbered 28 standing in the name of the honourable Member for Abitibi (Mr. Laprise) was amended by deleting the words "or approved" and is as follows:

(28) April 14, 1969—That Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the Customs Tariff and the National Defence Act, be amended by deleting paragraph (a) of sub-section 6 of clause 18 on page 43 and substituting therefor:

"(a) For the purpose of this section, an accredited hospital means a hospital containing not less than four hundred (400) beds and/or forming part of a university, in order that the therapeutic abortion committee may execute its functions in an atmosphere of perfect professional ethics."—Mr. Laprise.

The following notices of amendments:

(12) April 14, 1969—That Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the Customs Tariff and the National Defence Act, be amended in that clause 14 be not now read and that its consideration be postponed until a committee of medical practitioners representing the various medical associations of Canada has expressed its view on the expression "after becoming a human being" on lines 39 and 40 on page 34.—Mr. Rodrigue.

(14) April 14, 1969—That Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the Customs Tariff and the National Defence Act, be amended in that clause 15 be not now read and that section 209 or the proposed section 209 be re-introduced after qualified representatives of the medical and hospital associations of each of the provinces of Canada be consulted and have given their consideration.—Mr. Rodrigue.

(16) April 15, 1969—That Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the Customs Tariff and the National Defence Act, be amended in that clause 18 be not now read and that section 237 or the proposed section 237 be re-introduced after qualified representatives of the medical and hospital associations of each of the provinces of Canada be consulted and have given their consideration.—Mr. Laprise.