

who already believe that Government has grown too large, too remote, too costly, and too intrusive in the day to day lives of Canadians.

I was just getting warmed up, but I get the feeling that we are being called away. Perhaps I can pick this up in September when we return.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Blaker): I thank the Hon. Member. Before we proceed any further, I have some matters of which I must inform the House.

ELECTORAL BOUNDARIES READJUSTMENT ACT

FILING OF OBJECTIONS TO REPORTS OF COMMISSIONS FOR PROVINCES OF ONTARIO, QUEBEC AND BRITISH COLUMBIA

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Blaker): It is my duty to inform the House that a number of objections to the Electoral Boundaries Commission reports have been filed with the Speaker. Since they are numerous, if the House agrees, the texts of the objections will be printed as appendices to Votes and Proceedings. Is that agreed?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Blaker): I have the honour to inform the House that a message has been received from the Senate requesting this House to appoint a committee to act jointly with a Senate committee already chosen, if the House deems it advisable, to examine and consider the subject matter of Bill C-157, an Act to establish the Canadian Security Intelligence Service, to enact An Act respecting enforcement in relation to certain security and related offences and to amend certain Acts in consequence thereof or in relation thereto.

I have the honour to inform the House that a message has been received from the Senate informing this House that the Senate has agreed to the amendments made by the House of Commons to Bill S-24, An Act to implement an agreement between Canada and the Federal Republic of Germany for the avoidance of double taxation with respect to taxes on income and certain other taxes, without amendment.

I have the honour to inform the House that a message has been received from the Senate informing this House that the Senate has passed the following Bills, without amendment:

Bill C-166, An Act to amend the Judges Act and the Federal Court Act;

Bill C-119, An Act to repeal certain Statutes that have ceased to be enforced or have become unnecessary;

Royal Assent

Bill C-165, An Act to provide for financial assistance for industrial development in all regions of Canada;

Bill C-167, An Act respecting the Tax Court of Canada and to amend the Federal Court Act, the Judges Act and the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1971; and Bill C-95, An Act to provide for Government-operated pool systems on combinations of athletic contests and events and to amend the Criminal Code and the Income Tax Act.

THE ROYAL ASSENT

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Blaker): Order, please. I have the honour to inform the House that a communication has been received as follows:

Government House,
Ottawa,

June 29, 1983

Sir:

I have the honour to inform you that the Honourable W. R. McIntyre, Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, in his capacity as Deputy Governor General, will proceed to the Senate chamber today, the 29th day of June, at 7.30 p.m. for the purpose of giving Royal Assent to certain Bills.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
Esmond Butler
Secretary to the Governor General.

[Translation]

A message was delivered by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod as follows:

Madam Speaker, the Honourable Deputy to the Governor General desires the immediate attendance of this honourable House in the Chamber of the honourable the Senate.

Accordingly, the Speaker with the House went up to the Senate Chamber.
