

A hot time in the old town

"The Kids are Hot Tonight", a dance recital performed by students of Carolyn's School of Dance at Inkerman Public School on May 14, wowed audiences with two 18-act performances. Carolyn Van Koppen, founder of the school, said the classes take in children from Winchester, Mountain, Inkerman and Chesterville. The show was choreographed by Carolyn and Theresa Van Koppen and Pam Sherrer.

Winchester Press
May 18/83

THE KIDS ARE HOT TONIGHT

Dance troupe high-steps into Ex

INKERMAN — Carolyn Van Koppen's School of Dance was invited to attend the Heritage Village program at the Central Canada Exhibition in Ottawa last Thursday, thanks to a photograph that appeared in The Press this spring.

Thirty of the dance school's older pupils trained for their special appearance, in which they performed tap and jazz dancing at the Assembly Hall in Lansdowne Park.

Mrs. Coleman said the school started with about four students and grew over the years to its present size of around 50.

Winchester Press
Aug 31/83

Members of Carolyn's School of Dance who appeared at the Ottawa Exhibition are, front from left, Angela Stewart, Krista Mariner, Katie Carkner, Kathy Boyd, Cristie Bryan, Joann Hedge, Wendy Leslie, Chrisy Clapp. Middle from left, Theresa Van Koppen, Pamela Sherrer, Joanne McCooeye, Teresa Sherrer, Marsha Leslie, Dody

Booth, Becky Guy. Back from left, Krista Duncan, Jacki Graafland, Lori Cook, Cheryl Leslie, Kim Robinson, Melanie Fisher, Amy Guy, Kathy Van Koppen, Karen Craig, Maureen Guy, Angela Grootjens, Tanya Duncan, Carolyn Van Koppen.

Let's dance

Members of Carolyn's School of Dance were recently featured in SD&G Day at the Central Canada Exhibition in Ottawa. The dance school was representing Dundas County. The troop was made of students from dance schools in Inkerman and Iroquois.

Winchester Press Sept 5/84

Carolyn's School of Dance was among the entertainers at SD&G Day Thursday at the Central Canada Exhibition in Ottawa.

Winchester Press Sept. 1985.