

SPORTING.

May the end of the chase be the beginning of happiness.

The pack that a sheet will cover.

May our horses, hounds, and hearts never fail us.

May those who love the crack of the whip never want a brush to follow.

The gallant huntsman of the — country.

The brave sportsman !

The huntsman dear !

The sportsman that never beats about the bush.

The tender heart, and the brave rider.

The man that catches fair game and doesn't poach on another's preserves.

Rod and line : may they never part company.

The gallant hound that never goes on a false scent.

Bat and ball. Long may they be honestly opposed in the field.

The steady fisherman—who never “ reels home ” !

The Eleven : may they always be steady in adversity,
and upright beside the wicked.

May Britons never neglect sport for double-dealing.

Our “ Masters : ” may they always show us good game,
and deal well with their packs.

Reynard the fox !—Heaven preserve his family and friends !

A strong arm and a steady eye !

May the sweet savour of our good deeds lie well when we have “ gone over the last fence.”
