

What Does Quebec Want ?

(Translated from "La Presse," the great French Canadian newspaper in which the original appeared on February 20th, 1918.)

Such is the question which Mr. Frank Wise, a prominent Ontarion puts to us. Proud of the important part which he says he took in the Bonne Entente movement our fellow countryman of the neighboring Province seems surprised that the French Canadians after having given vent to so many complaints against Ontario have not yet seen fit to place before the Canadian public and especially before the Ontario public a detailed list of their grievances.

To listen to Mr. Wise, it would therefore be thought that we had never yet expressed in a clear and precise manner the reproaches we have to make in regard to a section of the English Protestant ele-
