BOXING

Only Visitor to Land a Championship at Canadian Tourney — Riversides Clean Up.

The finals of the Canadian boxing championships produced an unusually fine class and lots of milling. There were seventeen bouts in all, most of them going the limit, Joe Smith defeating Crosley of Montreal in the middleweight semi-final in an extra round, and then going out before his namesake from Buffalo. Several of the awards were unpopular, but that was the mistake of the crowd, the judges being likely correct in every one of their decisions. Bill Hitchin, who won the semi-final and final at 155 lbs., was probably the class of the tournament for style, clean two-hand offensive and defensive work, and magnanimity towards his adversaries. That is saying a good deal, for right up to the middleweights the boys showed great ability. The Riversides cleaned up five of the seven divisions, the middles going to Joe Smith of Harry West's Beaver A.C., and the top class to the white hope from Buffalo. Every other outsider was beaten—Tomkins, also of Buffalo; McEwen, of Hamilton and Hill, McMurtry and Crosley of Montreal.

The attendance was between three and four thousand. The bouts were necessarily run off promptly, lasting from shortly after 8 o'clock until 12:30.

Fights in Review.
In the opening bout, Majury of St. Charles put McEwen of Hamilton down for the rest in the first round and had him tired when the gong sounded, but in the second McEwen was able to hold his own, but in the third Majury took the lead and easily took the 105 lbs. semi-final.

Crosley of Montreal nearly wound up the career of Joe Smith of the Beaver A.C. in the first round of the 155 lbs. semi-final by putting him down twice, but in the second and third Smith evened it up and won by a good margin in the extra round, although the sympathies of the crowd were with the Beaver.

Peter Jackson of the West Ends, who won from Urquhart of Vancouver, looked good for the rest in the 125 lbs. semi-final, but in the second and third Smith evened it up and won by a good margin in the extra round, although the sympathies of the crowd were with the Beaver.

Hitchin of the Riversides qualified to meet Tomkins of Buffalo for the championship by stopping Bill Jacobs of the St. Charles in the third round. It was a hard bout with Hitchin having the better of the argument all the way.

The semi-final between Phyllis of St. Charles and Jackson of Riversides was a close one. The St. Charles boy stood up in the first round, but in the second and third Jackson had a good margin at the finish, but the crowd did not think so and made their dissatisfaction known in no uncertain way.

Robinson of Montreal took a good beating from Alf Saunders of the B.U.A.C. in the second 145 lbs. semi-final. Saunders was always the best and won easily.

Smith of Buffalo took the heavyweight semi-final from McNab of the Kelso School. McNab claimed to have been hit low in the first round and would not go on.

A Slogging Match.
The 145-lb. semi-final between Halligan of the Beaver A.C. and Harris, Riversides, was a slogging match from the start. Harris was in his second bout of the night, but won easily.

Williams of the Riversides took the 105-lb. championship from Majury of St. Charles by a good margin. Williams was fresh and certainly had the better of the bout, but the crowd was anything but satisfied. Majury had had a hard semi-final bout earlier in the evening.

Price and Pacey, both of the Riversides, provided the wind-up in the 115-lb. final. Although the boys were club-mates it did not help matters any and they were all they knew. Pacey was a winner.

McMurtry, Montreal, and Joe Smith of the Beavers were in the final at 155 lbs. McMurtry had had a hard bout with Howe of Buffalo and both eyes were bad shape when he started and Smith opened up a cut in the first that bled through the contest, but the boy was game and although Smith was given the decision the Montrealer got great applause when he left the ring.

Hill, Montreal, and Jackson, Riversides, were the contestants in the 135-lb. final. Hill on the night looked like the worst of the Montreal bunch, but he gave the great Jackson the worst few minutes he has had since he landed in Toronto, and, although Jackson was given the decision, which he deserved, the crowd was not satisfied, but it would take a good professional to beat Jackson.

Tomkins was the best of the Buffalo bunch and met Hitchin in the 125-lb. final. Both boys had had a hard bout in the semi-finals earlier in the evening and there was little to choose between them on condition. The Riversides boy was much the better and the decision in his favor was loudly cheered.

The Harris-Saunders bout in the 145-lb. final was a fight from the sound of the gong. Harris, who won from Saunders last fall, went right after the B.U.A.C. man and Saunders met him every time. It was Harris' third bout of the evening and when he was given the decision it was received with great applause.

The final bout of the tournament was between Joe Smith, Beaver A.C., and W. L. Smith, Buffalo. It was Joe Smith's third bout and it looked as tho he had the heavyweight championship clinched until within a half minute of the final round, when a couple of rights to the stomach and a right to the jaw put him to the mat.

YOUR SUMMER VACATION.
A most interesting and well printed publication has just been issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System, dealing with the attractions of the well known Algonquin National Park of Ontario, and copies may be had from any of their city ticket offices.

The territory dealt with is a thoroughly universal vacation one, combining high altitude (2000 feet), pure air, unspoiled forest, beautiful lakes, splendid fishing, much wild game, hotel or camp life, in close touch with civilization or entirely apart from it, and satisfying alike to novice and veteran.

Included in this publication is a description of the "Camp," situated on Smoke Lake, the centre of one of the finest fishing grounds in Canada, and which will be open for the first time this year, with accommodation for 60 people. This idea of a log cabin camp is an innovation in Canada, but one that has become most popular and attractive to a large number of summer playground seekers in the Rangeley Lakes, Maine. Good hotel accommodation is offered at the "Highland Inn" and the rates are most reasonable.

The publication is well written and the map that accompanies same gives one a good idea of the 250,000 acres that are found within the park boundaries.

The Dufferins of City Amateur League will practice on the diamond at Dufferin Park tonight, Thursday. All players are requested to turn out at 8:15 sharp.

Spring and Woods will do the battery work Saturday against the Iron Jukes.

The following players of the Bellefair ball team (seniors) and any others whose names have not been mentioned are requested to be on hand at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon at the Juke's grounds: V. English, P. Miller, W. McCaffery, E. and B. Hurd, G. McGee, V. Thompson, S. Cochrane, C. Sharpe, E. Adams, J. Beaumont and S. Cook.

The Junior Bellefair must turn out early to the Y.M.C.A. field on Saturday, where they will play East Toronto.

The members of the Broadview Y. M. C. A. recognizing the fact that they have an institution with an equipment and staff capable of accommodating two thousand members have inaugurated a membership campaign with this object in view.

Commencing with a membership banquet at which Messrs. Finlay and Warburton were the principal speakers, they proceeded to organize the men along unit and up-to-date lines.

Two leagues were formed to be known as the "National" and "International." Each league was composed of eight teams, the manager and the men all being signed up by contract. The teams in each league battle between themselves each day, the one securing the largest membership winning the game.

The league standing is announced on the score board each day, the points being given according to the membership actually secured by the different teams.

As a result of the activities mentioned above the "Y" is the busiest place in Riverside these days and the next week promises to break all membership records.

Last Wednesday night over two hundred men from the Dufferin Tire and Rubber Co.'s factory were entertained by an indoor athletic meet with all its frills and also a social evening. Tonight the men from the Gourlay, Winter & Leeming factory, to the number of about seventy-five will enjoy a similar evening, and next week the men in other Riverside factories will be similarly entertained.

Broadview men are particularly proud of their athletic field, which is one of the finest enclosed playing grounds east of Yonge street. Their Harrier Club won the Dunlop trophy last fall, and prospects are very bright for their big Inter-Association Field Day in June.

In addition to the field privilege, the swimming pool is interesting many people, and should help to make the sweltering hot days of summer seem shorter and more enjoyable.

The men in charge of the campaign at Broadview would like very much to have the opportunity of showing a larger number of men and boys the facilities which they have for the making of better citizenship, and anyone interested should leave his name at the Y. M. C. A. building on Broadview avenue, and one of the membership committee would be delighted to make an appointment with him.

The Blue Label Baseball team of the Cigar Makers' Union, have organized for the season and will join the Don Valley Senior League, and Acting Manager J. Haslam has signed the following players: J. Jackson, Haine, Englers, G. Beatty, J. Milan, S. Paul, Mark McGuire, D. Clark.

A meeting will be held Friday next at St. Paul's Hall, corner of Queen and Parliament streets, at 5 p.m. Any good senior players desiring a tryout kindly attend said meeting.

Luther McCarty, Tom McCarney's white heavyweight champion, who tried himself out by whipping Flynn, declares he will take on all comers now, and expects to be busy until July 4th with a short bout every two weeks. The Glorious Fourth will see him battling Jess Willard or Gunboat Smith at Los Angeles.
