KITCHENER SENIOR O.H.A. CHAMPIONS

Winners Checked Like Fiends and Were Always the Best.

DENTS' WEAK TEAM PLAY

Still, Two of the Three Goals Were Lucky and Result of Errors.

By a Staff Reporter.

Kitchener, March 1.—Kitchener will defend the Allan Cup. The winners of the western senior group had no trouble in beating the Canadian Dental Corps of Toronto here tonight in the second game of the O.H.A. senior finals.

The score was 3 to 0, and is about a criterion of the play. As was expected the ice was very heavy, but it did not stop the nice combination play and speed of the winners. They went for the full sixty minutes and had a margin in all three periods.

The Dentals' big fault was the lack of team-play. They bunched in centre ice, and time after time lost chances by failing to follow in the spot and have a man in centre ice to take a pass from the corner.

Willard Box displayed real courage by going on the ice after his serious operation, and played half of the game, retiring hardly able to lift himself over the boards. While he lasted, he did some great backchecking, and, with fast ice, might just have made the difference to turn defeat into victory for the Toronto outfit.

No matter what way you take tonight's contest, the winners were better. They checked like fiends all the way; they played heady hockey, always had a spurt ready, and gave their goalie the best kind of protection. The much-touted weak defence of the Kitchener team gave the lie to the critics; they blocked neatly, and both Karges and Truschinski rushed well.

Parkes and Hiller again were very effective; they teamed nicely and checked for the full time. Soloman used his weight to advantage, and never let his man run loose. Hainsworth gave Stewart a great run for the goalminding honors. On several occasions the Dents got in on top of him, but he turned aside the shots nicely.

Charlie Stewart was the best man for the former champions. He made many marvelous stops, and the three that got past him would have beaten even Vezina.

Two of the Kitchener goals were of the fluke variety, and the close students will tell you that the right score should have been one to nil. Two of Kitchener's goals were helped along by Dental players. The first one came from behind the net, and bounced past Stewart from Smylie's skate. The third one deflected into the net off Box's stick when he tried to bat it away in the air. Sheldon was probably the best man out in front of Stewart. He blocked well and rushed time after time. Lafiamme was a horse for work and moved to the front line when things looked bad, but had little luck with his efforts.

The rest of the boys tried all the way, but could not team up properly, and this tells the tale of the defeat.

All the goals were scored in the second period, it was even for the greater part of the first period, but after this time it gradually dawned on the Toronto delegation that Kitchener had the measure of the khaki-clad boys, and that it was only a question of time until the goals would come.

C. Stewart's Busy Night.

A look over the stops made by the goalers will perhaps tell the story better than anything else. Charlie Stewart had to turn aside 47 to Hainsworth's 23. While the Kitchener outfit made many lifts from outside the defence, every one was dangerous, and they knew how to play the game on their own soft sheet of the cold stuff.

Go right down the line and you can't help but hand it to the winners in all departments. They had the speed, checked back better and always had a man for the pass.

As before mentioned the Dentals were clustered in the second twenty minutes. Four minutes after the start Soloman got the first one, and it had horse shoes hanging to it. Laflamme blocked the puck, carried off and he went behind the net. He shot it out and the puck went into the net off Smylie's skate.

The second was an honest one. Hiller and Soloman combined prettily, Hiller getting the pass right across the ice when he had the defence beat. He waltzed right up and shoved it in. The third was another that could be called lucky. Hiller came up and raised when at the defence. The puck was high and Box made an effort to bat it away. It hit his stick and dropped down into the net. This was the total scoring for the night.

Toronto fans are now satisfied and they will be ready to boost and give Kitchener their support in the Allan Cup games.

The Kitchener team is well balanced and will be a worthy team to defend the Allan Cup against the western invaders.

Of Course the Pros Could Do This if They Want To

Ottawa, March 1.—To create a perfect three-cornered tie in the N.H.A., Ottawa fans figure tonight that Canadiens must win by four goals tomorrow night, and Ottawa beat Torontos by eleven goals, to bring about an equalization as regards the goals for and against system. The constitution, it was understood, provides for the for-and-against system as being applicable to only two teams. It was generally taken as Ottawa tonight, and, if three teams tied by the point system, that the goals-for-and-against system would not apply, and a league meeting would be called.

SONS OF ENGLAND HAVE SOCCER TEAM

Will Join the T. & D. F. A. and Expect to Make a Hit in the Game.

At a meeting of lodge delegates of the S.O.E. last night it was decided to enter a team in the T. and D. F.A. Mr. E. Tomlinson was elected president, and Mr. T. W. Butler secretary-treasurer.

It was also decided to form an athletic association in connection with the society, to embrace every branch of sport. The society, being assured of good, financial backing, and with the support of all the members of the Sons of England, should make a hit in the game.

Mr. Rose, late of Bristol City and Welsh international, is trainer and manager, and will be pleased to hear from and interview any Englishman that can play soccer. His address is 375 Sackville street.

Baracas Football Club Have Big Honor Roll

The Baracas will enter a team in the T. & D. League as usual. The club has an honor roll, of which it is justly proud. Of 16 names on the membership list in August, 1914, over 80 of them voluntarily donned the King's uniform, the other 14 were not eligible for military service. Twenty-five others who have joined the club since the outbreak of war have also enlisted, bringing the total up to 105. At the present time the Baracas have enough footballers at the front to make three complete teams (and good ones, too.) Any returned soldier, who feels fit to play the game, can have a fair trial with the Baracca Club, and should get in touch with Mr. Buchanan, 756 Dupont street. He is a war veteran himself, having enlisted with the 35th and fought with the 14th R.M.R. All last year's players and any new ones wishing to join a good club are requested to meet at the club, Bancroft avenue (just north of City Dairy) on Tuesday evening, March 5.

CHANGES AMONG LEADERS AT BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Cincinnati, O., March 1.—Numerous changes occurred among the leaders of the American Bowling Congress tournament here today. The most sensational performance on the alleys was that of C. Shanks, of Louisville, who, by toppling over 666 pins, landed himself in third position in the singles. He is the only man, however, that managed to disturb the first ten men in this event.

In the doubles S. Goodman and A. Jenks, of Canton, O., rolled themselves into second place with 1287, while W. Doerhmar and F. Farman, Fort Wayne, Ind., landed in third place with a score of 1259.

The Birk brothers' team of Chicago, champions of the five-men teams at the Grand Rapids tournament last year, with a record score of 3061, were on the alleys tonight in an attempt to again carry off first honors.

TORONTO GOLFER IS BEATEN IN SEMI-FINAL

St. Augustine, Fla., March 1.—Today's play in the semi-finals of the annual spring golf tournament here was featured by a hard-fought round between S. A. Moody of Brookline, Mass., and S. S. Cmeron of Toronto, Moody taking the match on the 20th green. The results of today's matches follow:

L. J. Hopkins, Chicago, defeated N. V. Porter, Clarleston, 6 to 4.
W. A. Knight, St. Augustine, beat W. P. Kent, Chicago, 2 to 2.
C. H. F. Smith, St. Paul, beat A. F. Wolf, Wilkesbarre, 5 to 3.
S. A. Moody, Brookline, beat S. S. Cameron, Toronto, one up in 20 holes.

WHERE THEY'RE PLAYING GOLF.

Bellair, Fla., March 1.—Mrs. G. H. Morrow of Great Neck won the women's championship on the Bellair links today. She defeated Miss Helen Morrison of Pittsburg, 6 up and 5 to play. Mrs. Morrow has gradually improved her play in every round of the tournament, and the final showed her game at its best.

U.T.S. JUNIORS WIN GAME AND ROUND

Defeating Woodstock by Two Goals at the Arena Gardens.

U. T. S. juniors earned the right to enter the semi-finals, but it was only after the tidiest kind of an argument that they disposed of Woodstock at the Arena last night by a score of 8 to 6. If the locals had any edge at all on the westerners it was in their combination and maybe their shots were a little truer. But man for man the Woodstock outfit appeared to have individual class on our boys.

It was anybody's game right up till the time the referee called it off. With ten minutes to play Woodstock were two goals down and they had one or two boys who, once they started on a jaunt, were liable to go by everybody. But their over-anxiety in teh dying moments made them worse instead of better, and instead of producing a final punch they faded.

It was 2 to 1 for the enemy at the end of the first; 5 to 5 at the end of the second, and 8 to 6 at the finish. It was ding-dong hockey all the way, of the end-to-end variety, with plenty of good stiff body-checking thrown in to make it exciting. Both teams showed the effects of the grueling towards the end, with Toronto perhaps standing up a little the better.

There is no doubt about who was the most effective man on the ice. King, the Woodstock defence man, has anything in the junior line faded when it comes to individual rushes. He simply skated away from everything and time and time again would have failed to find an opening in the defence on the first rush circled the net to come around the other side for a shot. He was responsible for three goals, all on lone rushes, and would have accounted for more had he accepted a little assistance once in a while.

The second best is hard to pick. Munroe of U. T. S. played sterling hockey all the way, but so did Argett and also Johnston of Woodstock. The goalers were about an even choice and both put up a splendid defence.

It just took the visitors 30 seconds to notch the first one when Carson went up from the face off. King went from end to end for number two. Sullivan batted in a pass at the goal mouth which ended the scoring in the first.

For the first half of the second U. T. S. made it a procession up to the Woodstock net. They got four in a row, mostly on pretty combination work, which the Woodstock defence appeared unable to solve. Woodstock opened up a link and came back with three in a row, which evened things up at the end of the second.

In the telling session Toronto got the jump on their opponents when Munroe and Argett combined after four minutes of play. King brought the crowd to its feet with one of the prettiest end-to-end rushes ever seen at the Arena, thru the defence and nonchalantly pushed the rubber past Sullivan. It was Woodstock's last kick, however, for altho King attempted several more lone efforts, Sullivan saved the citadel, while Jeffrey broke the ice with ten minutes to go, and a little later added another for good measure.

CENTRAL Y.M.C.A. LIFE-SAVING CLASS

Those Qualifying for Awards Including Certificates and Medallions.

Technical education in swimming and life-saving should be part of our school training, and every boy should learn to swim. Thousands of lives are lost annually by drowning, and a great proportion of this loss would be prevented if the knowledge of this great art of swimming and life-saving was more generally known and understood.

It has been the aim of those in charge of swimming activities at the Central Y. M. C. A. that every fellow should be able, not only to swim, but have a complete knowledge of the principles underlying life-saving. Such a course as this has been going on at Central Y. M. C. A. during the season, and this week examinations have been held for the awards granted by the Royal Life-Saving Society of England. The number of fellows passing the examinations constitutes a new record for any one class, no less than 72 awards being won by the fellows. In the examinations the class had to demonstrate its knowledge of land drills and the resuscitation of the apparently drowned, perform various methods of rescue and release in the water, demonstrate their swimming and diving ability, and give evidence that they have an elementary knowledge of physiology, so far as it relates to the circulation of the blood and respiration.

An interesting feature in connection with this class was the fact that it was taught entirely by members of the swimming leaders' corps. Great credit is due both to the leaders and to the class for the way in which they diligently took up the work. The board of examiners were very well pleased with the work in its entirety, and expressed the hope that many more members of the association could see their way clear to take up this branch of aquatics.

For the teachers' and instructors' certificatess, in addition to practical knowledge, a knowledge of teaching methods is absolutely essential, and nine awards were won in this section alone. Mr. W. W. Winterbourne was senior director in charge of all the activities, and the board of examiners consisted of Dr. H. S. Hutchinson, F. W. Young, H. W. Peake of Central Y. M. C. A., and W. D. Nicol of Broadview Y. M. C. A.

The list of those qualifying for the awards is as follows:

Elementary certificate—Dingman Jones Harvey LeBar, Gordon Smith, Eric Hounsom, Ben Chaplin, William Fairbanks, Fred Smith, Roy Stephenson, Harold Thompson.

Proficiency certificate—W. A. Matthews, A. Van, H. A. Carr, J. M. Langton, Wilford M. Saul, H. R. Kemp, W. B. Snyder, Eric Hounsom, Michael Castle, Frank Gwynne Morgan, Hamilton Wainwright, C. K. Clark, Lockie Eby, David Walker, W. Munroe, Fred Brosher, A. McLaren, Richard L. Cartwright, Charles Gordon, Albert Cleman, Edward Bradden, Roy Andrew Dougall, Carson Lewis, Jos. Edward Taylor, George Hanna.

TRAIN SERVICE IMPROVES

Companies Not Out of the Woods, Yet, However.

J. T. Arundel, general superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railway for Ontario, stated yesterday that the train services were improving very rapidly, but that the companies were not yet out of the woods. "So long as we do not get any severe snowstorms we shall manage quite well," said Mr. Apundel, "but any day we might have a blizzardy spell and then we would have to clear away the snow once again."

Both passenger and freight trains are now running on much better time, and the situation could scarcely be better according to the officials at the C. P. R. offices. The Grand Trunk trains were in in good time also. There were two exceptions to this general rule: the 8.50 a.m. from Chicago, which arrived at the Union Station after noon, and the Blackwater train which was due to arrive at 5.35 p.m. and did not get in until half past eight. The gratifying factor in the situation today is that whereas it was customary for the trains to be three and five hours behind schedule two weeks ago, it is unusual for the same trains to be even two and three hours late today.

IDENTIFIED AS JAS. LINSAY.

The body of the unknown man that was found lying across a bed in a D'Arcy street rooming house Thursday night, was yesterday identified as James Linsay, by Henry J. Clancy, 306 College street. An inquest on the body was opened at the morgue last night.

DOMINION POLICE MADE TWO RAIDS YESTERDAY

Orr Brothers' Bowling and Billiard Academy and Bowles' Lunch Visited for Defaulters.

Without ceremony, but in a very businesslike manner, two defaulter raids were successfully accomplished in Toronto yesterday afternoon by the Dominion police officers, the scenes of the raids being Orr Brothers' bowling and billiard academy, 41 East Queen street, and Bowles' Lunch, corner Bay and Queen streets. Altho the visits by the police were a great surprise, there was little confusion because of the smooth-working arrangements.

Owing to their being without the required credential papers 18 of the men apprehended at Orr Brothers' academy and six of those in Bowles' Lunch were taken to the offices of the Dominion police, Yonge and Front streets, where they are going thru the enquiry process.
