An Invitation COME TO Lakeland Highlands with me on January 2nd, spend a few days at our beautiful Country Club as our guest; be just as curious as you like, our beautiful Country Club as our guest; be just as curious as you like, as skeptical as if you came from Missouri, and I don't believe the king's horses will be able to drag you away to stay. If you have that "Florida feeling." then I want you to know that I am your friend and want to help you locate where you can light up your old meerschaum and sit on the verandah of your own home and look out over your growing groves—the envy of your growing groves—the envy of your friends—without one thought of the morrow; safe in the assurance of an abundant income.
