

The average attendance is, we regret to say, less than that of last year. For 1892 it was 165, for this year it is 140. There are many young men and women connected with our congregation who fail to avail themselves of the privilege of studying the Word in the Bible Class and Sabbath School. We hope that a larger number of our young men and women, and of our old men and women too, will join us in 1894 in a systematic, earnest, and prayerful study of God's Word. We also desire to urge upon parents the necessity of seeing that their children are regularly in their classes with well prepared lessons.

Mr. Pearen's class with an average of 90 per cent. wins the Superintendent's prize for best attendance.

Milton Atcheson, Matthew Ashe, Willie Ashe, Douglas Corning, Merrill Corning, James Ferguson, James Garvock, Forester McKinnon and Kate Foley were present every Sabbath; while Lizzie Flood, Fanny Slattery, Willie McKinnon and Alexander McKinnon missed one Sabbath only.

In the Primary Class, Irene Leslie, Margaret Black, and Mabel McFarlane recited the Golden Texts for six months; Bella Ross for four months; and Ella Ross, Louisa Wardrope, Marion Masson, Ethel Ross, Mabel Labarr, Alice Temple, Bertha Temple, and Herbert Swinburn for three months.

Those entitled to receive Mr. Blackburn's prize for Scripture recitation are Connie Alexander and Millie McFarlane, while Lizzie Muir, Ethel Harrington and Ada Swinburne received the prize for reciting accurately the whole of the Shorter Catechism. Sidney McMorran recited half the Shorter Catechism.

As will be seen by the Treasurer's report a substantial balance is on hand. Let us work more heartily, faithfully and energetically till He come.

J. McJANET,

Secretary.

J. MACMILLAN,

Superintendent.

