St. Thomas Market.
St. Thomas, July 5.—Wheat, per bu. 70c; oats, 32c to 33c; peas, 50c to 60c; barley, 45c to 55c; corn, 45c to 55c; beans, 70c.
American Markets.
CHICAGO, July 5.—Grain was extremely weak today, owing to vast accumulation at primary markets. Wheat lost 1 1/2c, corn declined 5c and oats lost 5c. Provisions were influenced by the weakness in grain. Pork declined 10c, lard 5c and ribs 5c. Wheat opened at a loss of 5c, compared with the closing price of last Saturday. All the early information was against higher prices. The English visible supply, which a year ago showed a decrease of 250,000 bushels, today showed an increase of 1,538,000 bushels. Shipments from India to European markets astonished even the bears. They were reported at $2,000,000 bushels. September wheat, which opened with sales from 75c down to 74 1/2c, showed no tendency to rally with this astonishing supply of grain, and the bears hammered market down, until at noon September was bringing 74 1/2c to 74c. The visible supply figures, however, started a second decline, September touching 73 1/2c. The visible supply showed an increase of 4,744,000 bushels. This enormous increase was partially offset by a decrease of 2,248,000 bushels in the quantity of ocean passage. Chicago received 277 carloads, while Minneapolis and Duluth reported 1,738 cars, compared with 443 cars a year ago. Shipping demand was slack, only 16,000 bushels reported sold here for export. Atlantic port clearances were 820,000 bushels wheat and flour. The market showed no sign whatever of rallying to 74 1/2c at 73 1/2c to 73c for September, a net loss of 1 1/2c.
The leading futures closed as follows: Wheat—July, 72 1/2c; Sept., 73 1/2c; Dec., 73 1/2c. Corn—July, 33 1/2c; Sept., 33 1/2c; Dec., 33 1/2c. Oats—July, 23 1/2c; Sept., 23 1/2c; Dec., 23 1/2c. Pork—July, $8.30; Sept., $8.47 1/2; Dec., $8.67 1/2. Lard—July, $5.07 1/2; Sept., $5.14 1/2; Dec., $5.24 1/2. An important deputation of Welsh merchants has just left Cardiff, having Canada for their destination. They propose to visit the leading commercial centers of the Dominion, with a view of discussing the best means to be taken for developing trade between Wales and Canada. The announcement of the Daily News that an agreement has been reached on the proposed all-British Pacific cable has occasioned the liveliest kind of satisfaction in colonial circles here.
ANNA'S HUSBAND SPEAKS UP.
Comte Boni de Castellane, who married Miss Anna Gould, has addressed a communication to the Prince of Monaco, sharply criticizing the prince for his recent letter to Mme. Dreyfus, inviting her and her husband to sojourn at his chateau after the prisoner's acquittal, of which the prince expressed himself as confident. The comte, who charges the prince with "interfering in an affair which you are in no way concerned," says: "If, as a foreign sovereign, you thought you could influence French officers in the grave verdict that they are about to pronounce, I beg you to note that we

JOHN AND JONATHAN
Fraternalize at a Fourth of July Dinner in Old London.
London, July 6.—At the Fourth of July reception, given by United States Ambassador Choate to a number of distinguished English and American guests, the ambassador made one of the most dignified and statesmanlike addresses he has yet delivered in England. Praising the Anglo-Saxon alliance, the speaker declared that the Anglo-American alliance was no new thing, as was evidenced by the lowering of British flags in the channel fleet on the death of Washington, by the sorrow for Lincoln, and by the honest grief at the demise of Garfield. He referred also in eloquent terms to England's sympathy in the recent war with Spain, and concluded his remarks by proposing "The Day We Celebrate."
Senator Lodge responded with a most patriotic expression of the determination of the American people to carry on and carry out the war in the Philippines, "not selfishly, but for the civilization of the people."
Mark Twain also responded to the same sentiment, keeping the company most of the time in peals of laughter, but closing with this pathetic reference to the alliance: "Wherever one soldier finds himself beneath the shelter of the other flag, he knows he is not an alien, but a kinsman of the blood, and at home." Cardinal Vaughan responded to "The Community of English-Speaking Nations," saying that the destiny of the new century depended on the question whether the despotic power now looming in North Asia or the liberty-loving Anglo-Saxon was to control the great uncivilized east. Other toasts followed.
