Port Stanley Is Mecca of Several Large Industrial Firm Picnics on Saturday

G. T. R. Carshops, London Lithographing Company, Perrin & Co., Advertiser Job Printing Company All Journey to Lakeside — Cleveland Firm Present.

ADVERTISER JOB.

The Advertiser Job Printing Company's second annual picnic at the lakeside was a decided success. More than one hundred employees and their families attended. Among the guests at the outing was Dr. H. A. Stevenson, M.P.P. A long program of sports was run off. Probably the most interesting event was the voting for the most popular girl. The ballots were case just after luncheon. Stuffing of the ballots for one particular girl by Ivan Hunter, a popular "lino" operator, passed unnoticed until the ballots were counted. Miss R. McPherson, the winner, was presented with two fine American Beauty roses by Dr. Stevenson on behalf of the picnickers. Much humorous comment as to the contents of the box in which the roses were placed was passed, but nothing worse than flowers was found when it was opened.

The Sport Results. Port Stanley was the mecca of four of the largest and most successful be the most popular mem- local industrial picnics of the season on Saturday, when the employees of the G. T. R. carshops, D. S. Perrin & Co., the London Printing and Lithographing Company and the Advertises Peters Shops Job Printing Company made merry at the lakeside. Besides these, hundreds of people who had come to the park by boat from Cleveland to attend the Peerless Motor Company outing from hat city helped swell the huge crowds. The lowering clouds of the morning turned to bright sunshine shortly after noon, thereby driving away the only thing that threatened the pleasures of the day. The brightening skies gave a the day. The brightening skies gave a greater impetuosity to the joyous spirits which had been somewhat dampened by early drizzles, and from then on every feature and event of the day was keenly enjoyed, despite cool winds. Three picnics from this city were featured by great refreshment tents, which supplied the employees of the various firms with candy, soft drinks and ice cream. The events in each of the picnics were started by pistol shots, which gave an air of professionless to the races.

shots, which gave an air of professionism to the races.

Accidents Few.

Despite the many people crowding the park, both on the heights and on the beach, the day was marred by only one small accident. M. McLean and Eithographing Company, sprained his ankle in one of the races. He was given relief by the carshops first aid team.

Twenty-five hundred people attended the carshops picnic, which was the largest on the grounds. Special trains leaving this city early in the morning carried the crowds to the grounds. The G. T. R. band supplied music throughout the day.

A long program of sports was started immediately after luncheon and lasted almost until darkness had fallen. Every race had many entries and was

The comedy of the day was provided by the blind pig, an absolutely temperate race, run jointly by ladies and men, the wheelbarow race, and especially the bandsmen handicap, in which the members of the band were forced to the members of the band were forced to the continually blowing their inrun while continually blowing their in- was the most successful gathering of Locals Win.

A baseball game between the local G. T. R. and the Fort Erie G. T. R. game drew large crowds, despite the fact that it was not played until 5 o'clock. The London team won by a score of 16 to 6.

The large score run up by both teams as not indication of the brand of ball that was served. In spite of a heavy plays were staged. The feature was a bare-handed stab of a hot grounder by Powell, who played third base for London.

The batteries for Fort Erie were Near and Howe. Near was relieved in the fourth by Depper after he had allowed twelve of the locals' runs. Cline and Males worked for the local shops. Cline struck out eight men and allowed nits, while his teammates gathered twelve. London had one error to Fort Erie's three. Cline also featured at the bat with four hits in as many trips to the plate. He had one homer, one triple and two singles.

A football game between the G. T. R. employes in the history of the company. T. W. McFarland acted efficiently as master of ceremonies assisted by C. Fitzwalters, chairman, and C. H.
