They Came! They Saw! They Remained to Buy!

That's the Story of the Visitors to the

IT'S the talk of the town the bargains we are offering. We are selfish in making these reductions-for we look forward a "wee bit," and we know when our alterations commence that our business will be practically suspended and our expenses going on just the same. So isn't it better to sell our merchandise when you want it at a lower price than you ever dreamed of paying? One man stopped the writer this morning and said, "I bought three suits when I only intended buying but one"-and that's the way many are doing in other purchases. We invite you to come and look around-you'll find our salespeople clever and obliging, and your interests are ours in so far as we can gain your confidence and secure your valued patronage for future times.

Money Back on Bargains Bargains Exchanged

No quibble or sour looks-but your money back-a pleasant smile and come back again. We call that "square"-the golden rule is our business religion.
