The marriage of Mary Victoria, daughter of Mrs. E. McKay Turner, to Mr. Norman H. Campbell, son of the late Hon. Archibald Campbell, and Mrs. Campbell, took place quietly at three o'clock yesterday afternoon at Grace Church-on-the-HMI, the Rev. James Broughall officiating. The bride, who was given away by Mr. Douglas A. Campbell, wore a tailor-made of navy blue gabardine, a navy blue hat with roses and she carried sweet peas and roses. Mrs. Douglas Campbell was matron of honor in navy blue serge with crinoiine hat and bouquet of roses. Mr. James Bell was best man. After the honeymoon, which will be spent in southern Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will live in the Lonsdale.

A most successful "Evening of Comedy" was given last night in the Conservatory Hall by the pupils of Miss Beatrice Dyke, whose presentation of Pierrot in "The Maker of Dreams" was very clever. A "Lesson in Marriage," by the senior dramatic class was very well put on and the children's parts were most creditable. Miss Prest gave a violin solo. A few of those in the audience included Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Gulzeib, Rev. J. Dyke, Mr. Elwood Genoa.

Bill Follows Drayton Suggestions. The bill, in the main, followed the ecommendations of the Drayton-Ackworth commission. Parliament deided last year not to let the Grand Trunk go into insolvency and it was now up to parliament and the people of Canada to stay honorably by its agreement. The complaint that some shareholders had not been notified of the meeting at which the agreement was discussed had dwindled down until there were now only two shareholders affected and counsel for the company assured the government that these two had not a vote in the proceedings, even
