The Cleveland Americans faltered somewhat in fielding last week, but batted in double figures in all games except one, when blanked by Shawkey of New York. Martin of Philadelphia won over Coveleski yesterday. Bagby of the Indians increased his record to eight straight victories. The Boston ching staff appears to be getting n form, yielding an average of two runs a game last week.

Nearly 50 per cent. of the Chicago players reaching first-base last week scored runs. Erickson of Washington puzzled the White Sox batters yesterday. KRAMER DEFEATS SPENCER. Newark, N.J., May 24 .- Frank Kra-

Victory Bonds and Semi-ready suits are alike in the fact that they are always worth the par value marked in plain figures on them.

But Semi-ready suits have the edge on Victory Bonds inasmuch as the suits would sell for a premium above the price label in the pocket if offered in the United States.

Pure wool clothes cost less in this city than the same quality would sell for in any city in the Union.

The par value of a Semi-ready garment is based on the cost of cloth and materials and the price in the pocket represents the smallest and fairest profit at which good clothes can be sold.
