

that Christ is always better than His word, that Christ is always by the side of His disciple. Will you remember that Christ never has forgotten any toiler in His vineyard? Will you remember that in the day when you see Him in His kingdom He shall speak about what you have done, and shall find pleasure in telling it over to you again? So much of our work as is like unto wood, hay and stubble, will perish; but if our faith has ever been in Christ there shall be some that shall abide; and if some of our work seems to have been unworthily accomplished He shall not forget it. You remember that sentence of John's that gloweth with living fire. He says, "Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God!" I. John iii. 1. And as Tennyson puts it in his golden sentences:

"For what are men better than sheep or goats
That nourish a blind life within the brain,
If, knowing God, they lift not hands of prayer
Both for themselves and those who call them friend?
For so the whole round earth is every way
Bound by gold chains about the feet of God."

Men and women, have faith that God uses us, that He blesses us, that He will give us the victory.

The convention was then brought to a close with the singing of "God be with you till we meet again," and prayer by Mr. Day.
