VALUABLE DONATION TO LEGISLATIVE LIBRARY

Mrs. George E. Fenely Offers to Give the Province Fyles of the Old Morning News.

Premier Hazen today received the following letter which is self explanatory:

Fredericton, N. B., June 2.
Hon. J. D. Hazen, D. C. L.

Dear Sir,—Included in my late father's estate we have 25 volumes of the old Morning News from the year 1839 to 1862, inclusive.

Hardly a month passes but enquiry is made from one source or another as to certain historical facts contained in these files.

My mother has suggested my writing to you to ask if the government would accept these 25 volumes as a donation to the Legislative Library, if so she would be pleased to hand them over.

W. T. H. FENELY.

WEDDINGS

Rowley-Garnet

At their new home 274 Waterloo street Miss Dolly Garnet of Garnett Settlement will be united in marriage at nine o'clock tonight to Joseph Rowley of this city.

The ceremony, which will be witnessed by relatives of the happy couple, will be performed by Rev. J. W. Keirstead, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church.

The bride will be escorted in a dainty creation of chiffon tulle trimmed with Irish point lace and will carry a shower bouquet of bridal roses.

The happy couple have been the recipients of a goodly number of wedding gifts.

Richardson-Donovan

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place in St. Thomas Church, Canterbury, N. B., on Wednesday morning at six o'clock, when Elizabeth M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donovan, Canterbury, was united in marriage to Dennett L. Richardson, M.D., of Providence, R. I.

The church was prettily decorated in green and white. Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. M. L. Murphy, of Debec.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was becomingly gowned in a dark blue tailor made costume with white picture hat, and carried a white prayer book.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Elsie who wore cream silk with pink, and tulle and carried pink sweet peas.

Little Miss Marie, in a white silk empire dress was flower girl and carried a basket of white sweet peas. The groom was ably supported by L. E. Higgins of St. John.

The popularity of the young couple was shown by the very many beautiful gifts received. The groom's present to the bride was a gold watch and fob. To the bridesmaid he gave a Tiffany bracelet, with matching set, to the groomsmen a pearl stick pin and to the flower girl a monogram locket and chain.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on the 7:30 train for a honeymoon trip to the White Mountains, after which Dr. and Mrs. Richardson will be at home to their friends in Providence, where the groom is superintendent in the R. I. Hospital.

Millidge-Shewen

A quiet but very pretty wedding will be solemnized at Elmwood, Burpee avenue at 8 o'clock this evening, when Miss Gladys Millidge, daughter of E. T. P. Shewen, resident engineer of the Public Works, will be married to Mr. W. H. Haywood.

The ceremony will be performed by the bride's brother, Rev. Samuel Shewen, of Greenwood, assisted by Rev. James Millidge, of Oak Bay, brother of the groom. The bride, who will be unattended, will be escorted in a becoming travelling suit of Copenhagen blue with black lace picture hat with ostrich plumes, and will be given away by her father.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the wedding party will adjourn to the dining room, where a dainty supper will be served.

In the floral decorations, which are exceedingly bright and pretty, yellow and green form the predominant colors. On their return from their honeymoon, the newly married couple, who have been the recipients of numerous beautiful wedding gifts, will reside at their own home, Cranston avenue.

Both bride and groom, who are very popular, have the good wishes of a host of friends throughout the city and province.

Gallivan-Whely

The wedding of Miss Margaret Whely, daughter of John Whely, City road, to Dennis Gallivan, of Brookville, was celebrated in Holy Trinity church on Monday afternoon by Rev. J. J. Walsh. The bride was attended by Miss Ethel White, James Gallivan supporting the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallivan left on a honeymoon trip to Montreal and other cities. Mr. Gallivan is a popular employee of the Eastern Steamship Company.

Clark-Knott

Miss Annie Knott, of this city, will leave today for Boston, where she will be married early next week to Geo. Clark, of Springfield, Mass., at the home of her brother in Boston. Mr. Clark was formerly with the American Bank Note Company of this city. Miss Knott has been leading soprano in Exmouth street Methodist church, and they have presented to her a handsome gift of table cutlery. After the marriage they will reside in Springfield, where Mr. Clark is with a large lithographing concern.

Stackhouse-Souther

Wm. C. Stackhouse, formerly of North End but now of Strathcona, was married last evening at 8 o'clock to Miss Annie Souther, daughter of Samuel Souther, of Baywater, at the home of the bride's parents. About sixty guests were present.

Rev. Mr. Young, of Baywater, officiated. The bride was given away by her father. The young couple will leave tonight for Strathcona.
