HONORS FOR A

three years' course. The success of this clever St. John girl is further evidence of the talent possessed by young ladies from this the loyalist city. Miss Greaney is already well known here as an elocutionist of ability and the news of the honors received by her from a school of such excellent standing, will give much pleasure to her many friends in this city.

The advent of mild weather was signalized today by the appearance of a number of open street cars on the route. The cars are resplendent in new paint.

Deta Le Clair has been reported by Paragent of the court during the proceedings around the court during the proceedings.

In testifying against Cook she proved to be almost as voluble as possible and said: "Mister Cook, he came into my shop while I was eating yesterday, and offered me five more, but I says to him, says I, you'll have to give it to the constable, and what did he do but go way and come back with a false bill, and says I owes him for two bushels of coal, and then he says, to me, he says you owe me for a stand. He then shouted I've got you now, and went outside. He stopped with a half grin on hisself and caled me the awfullest name and talked to himself dreadfully, and shook his head at me through the window. I knew he was drinkin', as I heard the smell o' licker on his lips."

Nelson said he lived upstairs with William Brown, in the same house with Collins. He heard the Murphy girl scream that her mother was bleeding to death and responding to the call he descended to the Collins apartments and saw the woman lying on the floor of the kitchen with Collins holding her head and the woman's daughter also in the room.

When asked to attach his signature to his statement he demurred and vouchsafing that he was "hitting the hops," he entreated the police clerk to sign it in

Germain street. An address was delivered by Hon. Robert Maxwell, and the following programme was carried out:

William Brown the next witness said he heard singing in the Collins flat and subsequently some moaning. In the kitchen he perceived the woman on the floor and Collins holding her head in his hand.
Rosanna Murphy in her testimony said her mother, Collins and Charles Collins were in the Collins domicile when she visited the house at 9 o'clock for the purpose of requesting her mother to return home. Mrs. Collins poured some lukewarm water on her mother's face out of a ket tle which was on a stove. Her sister en deavored to restrain him from pouring the water on her mother but he would not accede. Collins attempted to prevent he from departing from the house.

The many friends of Rev. Dr. Wilson Railway, passed through the city at noon who has been confined to his home for the past three months, will be pleased to L. C. Burpée, engineer of maintenance to learn that he was able to be about the city this morning.

Packers of Tiger Indo-Ceylon Teas.

Dear Sir:—Our choice at home of Tiger Tea is grade—at—c per lb.

Is it true that the tiny dried, whi. ish buds in TIGER TEA give it that fine delicate flavor? We used to drink China Tea years ago, but prefer the TIGER TEA in 1-lb. packets, as it looks clearer, and because TIGER TEAS are prepared and packed by machinery instead of by the nasty, sweaty hand-treatment as in China. The pretty blue and white label is enough to make one wish to taste a cup of TIGER TEA. The tiger paws on the label show how strong the TIGER TEA

I am very glad to send you this letter about TIGER TEA, and if you wish I will send you a sketch of a tiger which would perhaps be fiercer than the tiger on your label. The rich cherry color of TIGER TEA pleases everyone, and I hope that you will always keep the quality of it as good as it is now. I enclose the 12 cards required, and tell you truly this is my own handwriting.

Every Canadian should buy a 1-lb. packet of TIGER TEA, for, besides the good quality, we know that the work of blending, labelling, boxing, packing, etc., is all done by Canadians in St. John.

My age is.
