STEALING HENS IS CHARGE IN COURT

Wm. Legge and Leon Smith, Arrested Last Night, Are Before Magistrate

William Legge, a man who is supposed to belong to Halifax, along with Leon Smith, a cook on board the large schooner, Cutty Sark, were arrested last night by County Police Constable Shortliff and Police Sergeant Sullivan, of the Northern Division, and lodged in the county jail on suspicion of breaking and entering the hen house of Thomas Hayes, Robesay avenue, killing 20 hens and stealing the same. County Policeman Shortliff, while doing his rounds about 10 o'clock last night, arrived at Haymarket Square, where he was informed that two men were on the Glen Falls car and were seen carrying two heavy bags. Constable Shortliff followed the two men who parked the two bags in the doorway of the Tabernacle church on Haymarket Square, and when a street car on the loop arrived they boarded the car bound towards Paradise Row. The officer accompanied the men and on arrival at the corner of Wall street and Paradise Row, he hailed Sgt. Sullivan, to whom he told the story. Sgt. Sullivan immediately boarded the street car and with Officer Shortliff they searched the bags and found ten dead hens in each. Legge and Smith were placed under arrest and conveyed to the county jail, while the hens were placed in a cool place in the jail.

After the arrest had been made Constable Shortliff got busy and learned that the hens were some of the imported stock owned by Thomas Hayes, the well known horseman. This is the second time that his hen house has been robbed of valuable stock. The men were before Magistrate Adams in the East Saint John court this morning and pleaded not guilty. Evidence was given by Thomas Hayes and Constable Shortliff, and the case was adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon for more witnesses.
