

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, SAINT JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, JANUARY 13, 1927

7

Social Personal and Club News

Women's Canadian Club To Have Motion Picture Story Of Mount Everest Climb

The bringing to Saint John next month of Captain John Noel and the official motion pictures of the four Mount Everest expeditions, the Women's Canadian Club considers one of its outstanding triumphs and at a meeting of the executive of the club held yesterday afternoon definite plans were made for this notable event.

Mrs. G. S. Macdonald, president, was in the chair and the meeting was held in the Church of England Institute rooms with a large attendance of members.

JANUARY PLANS

For January the club is planning a social and business meeting to be addressed by a prominent New Brunswick speaker and preliminary plans were made for that occasion also. It was announced that Mrs. George Black, wife of the Federal member for the Yukon, will be the speaker at the March meeting and will give a recital of the poems of service and tell of her experiences in the Yukon, illustrating her address and recital with a very fine series of lantern slides.

A resolution of deep sympathy was

Miss E. Flaherty Is President of Cathedral Society

At a meeting of the Propagation of the Faith of the Cathedral parish held last evening, officers for the year were elected as follows: president, Miss Ethel Flaherty; vice-president, Miss Nan McEldred; financial secretary, Miss Gertrude Ryan; assistant secretary, Miss M. Gertrude O'Neill; and assistant, Miss Emily O'Rourke.

Considerable regret was expressed at the meeting last evening that Miss Cecelia McDonald would not offer again for the position of president, an office which she has held for six years, during which time she has given very freely of her efforts and time in the interests of the society.

Feeling reference was made to her work by members of the society last night.

Rev. Francis Gillen is chaplain of the organization which has many members throughout the Cathedral parish.

Those who can afford it are achieving ultimate smartness by wearing

A fox coat Londoners $250,000 in extra laundry bills.

Allingham and Loyalist Lodges, B. of R.T., Have Joint Installation of Officers

Loyalist Lodge, No. 674, auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and E. W. Allingham Lodge, No. 894, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, held a joint installation of officers last evening in the I. O. O. F. hall, West Saint John. William Baxter and Mrs. T. W. Cecelia McDonald were the installing officers and were assisted by Mrs. T. L. Foley and James Donner. Mrs. John Baird played the marches while the installation was taking place.

The officers of Loyalist Lodge installed were as follows: Past president, Mrs. W. A. Tobin; president, Mrs. Samuel Silliphant; councillor, W. A. Tobin; vice-president, Mrs. Archie Brown; treasurer, Mrs. Minnie Graham; recording secretary, Miss Ellen T. Walsh; chaplain, Mrs. George Currie; conductress, Mrs. William Thompson; warden, Mrs. Herbert Robinson; inside guard, Mrs. Robert Peery; outside guard, Mrs. George Merryweather; legislative representative, Mrs. W. A. Tobin; musician, Mrs. John Baird.

The officers of E. W. Allingham Lodge who were installed were as follows: Past president, H. L. MacFarlane; president, E. Claude Seely; vice-president, F. J. Maloney; recording secretary, C. A. Brown; treasurer, D. T. Bings; chaplain, H. Southern; conductor, James S. Donner; warden, George Merryweather; inside guard, F. J. Lennon; outside guard, G. W. Donner; agent of the official publication, A. L. Hildwell; legislative representative, S. H. Shaw.

After the installation, Mrs. Silliphant, the newly elected president of Loyalist Lodge, paid a tribute to the work and executive ability of the retiring president, Mrs. W. A. Tobin, who had been the first president of the auxiliary and had continued in that office until the present time, a period of about five years.

Mrs. Tobin gave an address and paid a tribute to the members for their loyalty and co-operation throughout her term of office.

Addresses were also given by others present.

The prize winners at cards, which were enjoyed later, were as follows: Ladies', first, Mrs. W. A. Tobin; second, Mrs. Samuel Wilson; third, Mrs. Alfred Bodd; gentlemen's first, Samuel Silliphant; second, Charles Cooy; third, Blaine Tracey.

Assistance To Charities' Body Stated Satisfactory

The co-operation of individuals and organizations with the Associated Charities for the distribution of Christmas cheer and gifts to the poor was very satisfactory in the season just closed; it was reported at the meeting of the Associated Charities held yesterday afternoon in the Bible Society Rooms with W. Shives Fisher, president, in the chair.

The giving at the Christmas season was also reported to have been most generous. A number of contributions to the society's fund for emergency relief were very gratefully acknowledged and included several substantial checks.

Several distressing cases were spoken of at the meeting and relief measures were approved for these. For one particular case a special committee was appointed to take necessary steps.

To deal with the financing of the year a finance committee was appointed with the following members, J. Hunter White, H. Usher Miller, W. Shives Fisher and Miss Stella Payson. The statistical report of the work of the secretary, Miss Grace O. Robertson, showed that December had been an extremely busy month.

The report was as follows: Applications received, 281; request for employment, 16; employment was found, 10; seeking relief, 189; relief was procured for 186; records given, 27; clothing was given to 10; visits made, 186; cases investigated, 18; asking for transportation, 4.

CORPORATE ATTENDANCE.

The members of the Young Women's Guild and of the Girls' branch of the W. A. of Trinity held corporate attendance at the evening service in the church last night. Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence, the rector, was assisted by Rev. W. E. Fuller, curate. Mr. Lawrence spoke specially to the two organizations and his theme was "The Other Way." Following the services the Guild held its monthly business meeting with Miss Roberta Holder, president, in the chair. As the meeting was the first of the new year a social hour was enjoyed at the close and refreshments were served.

CARDS ENJOYED.

A large number of patrons attended the card party held last night under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the A. O. H. in their hall in Union street, and the evening was very much enjoyed. There were handsome prizes awarded, including a door prize of a lot of wood, which was won by H. V. MacGillivray. Miss Mary Hallahan was the convener of the most efficient committees in charge. The lucky prize winners were as follows: Ladies', first, Miss Marie Logan; second, Mrs. B. J. Power; consolation, Mrs. William Lean. Gentlemen's, first, Mr. Duffy; second, Mr. Joseph Gault; consolation, P. McElane.

SILK TRIMMINGS.

Woolen street frocks trimmed with crepe satin are new in Paris. Either the crepe or satin side of the silk may be used.

Miss Agnes Hamilton gave a very enjoyable small tea yesterday afternoon, at the family residence, Union street, in honor of Mrs. Grant E. Harper, of Waterloo, Ontario, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ernest Smith, 114 Wentworth street.

Miss Marjorie Green, Ottawa, entertained at a delightfully arranged tea Monday in honor of Miss Constance Todd, of Saint John, who is the guest of Miss Helen Leabster. At the attractively arranged tea table, Miss Bobb McDermott presided, and the fees were served by Miss Lucile Rinfret.

Miss Gertrude Lane entertained at bridge on Tuesday evening at her home, 19 St. David street, in honor of Miss Florence Isaacs. The fortunate prize winners were Miss Hazel Lane and Mrs. R. Isaacs. Much was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. B. M. Hill, formerly of Fredericton, but now residing in Saint John, who is visiting Mrs. W. J. Lawson, York street, Fredericton, was the honor guest at a bridge of seven tables given Monday night by Mrs. Lawson.

At a recent meeting of St. Paul's W. A. plans were completed for an evening with American and Canadian Humourists to be given next week by Mr. Frederick T. Short. Mr. Short will be assisted by Miss Audrie Hunter and Mr. Chester Bourne in vocal numbers.

Miss Doreen Harper, Miss Mary Dearden, Miss Ruth Oland and Miss Constance Fawcett, who spent the holiday season at their homes here, have returned to Halifax, to resume their studies at the Sacred Heart convent.

Mrs. H. V. McGillivray, who has been a patient in the Maritime Sanatorium for a few days, has returned to her home in Union street, much improved in health.

Mrs. Willard Hanson and little daughter, have returned to their home in Woodstock after spending the holidays with Mrs. Hanson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Carr, St. James street.

The many friends of Mrs. Fred Miller, Murray street, will be pleased to learn she is steadily improving after a serious operation in the General Public Hospital. Her mother, Mrs. E. Canning, who was called here by Mrs. Miller's illness, has returned to her home in Portland, Me.

LACE JABOTS.

A simple canton crepe dress of beige has brown lace jabots falling from neckline to hem in front and from waistline to hem at the sides.

LARGE BERTHAS.

Large Bertha collars of silk or metal lace are used with velvet afternoon frocks.

Activities Increase As Y. W. C. A. Classes Resume Schedules

The gymnasium classes activities and the activities of the girls' club at the Y. W. C. A. are in full swing once more after the Christmas holidays and the members are attending in large numbers.

The gymnasium classes began on Monday of this week and the average attendance has been very good. The formation of a new club among the girls, the girls of the gymnasium and senior classes of the gymnasium and will hold its official inauguration at a supper gathering on Jan. 21. For its program in the coming months it is hoped to have debates, addresses and entertainment features and on Tuesday of next week the gymnasium girls, who are enrolling in the Club, will be among the Y. W. C. A. hostesses for the senior Y. W. C. A. class members at a social gathering at the Y. W. C. A. recreation centre.

In the girls' work section of the "Y" program, the clubs are again taking up their activities. The members of these clubs have been very sorry to have the Christmas holidays interfere with their regular meetings and the groups of younger girls among them have been especially awaiting the re-opening.

The Junior Boosters, a numerous band, held their first meeting after the holidays yesterday afternoon and the Intermediate Boosters met in the evening with a great company attending. For these two classes the enrollment is now all that can possibly be accommodated in the Association premises.

The other two clubs are for older members and are the Star Boosters and the Overseas Club, both of which will hold their first meeting of the season this evening.

The Overseas Club is having a supper gathering this evening to mark the re-opening of activities.

The Star Boosters will have their first entertainment of the new season on Thursday of next week.

They have now a new gymnasium leader in Miss Margaret Robertson and are most fortunate in having Miss Robertson undertake that volunteer service as she is a fully qualified physical instructor of McGill. They are also to have instruction in leather work which Miss Rowland has kindly offered to give and arrangements are being made for a series of lectures and special addresses and other attractive features for the winter program.

DINNER CANCELLED.

The dinner in connection with the U. N. B. Alumni semi-annual meeting on Friday night has been cancelled on account of the Canadian Club luncheon, which is being held in the Admiral Beatty hotel that evening. The out-of-town members of the Alumni will be privileged to attend the Canadian Club meeting. The business meeting of the Alumni will be held as usual at the Union Club at 8 p. m. Included in the Fredericton delegation for the Alumni meeting will be Prof. A. Cameron, professor of chemistry, who is to be speaker at the evening business meeting.

HANDLES SHORTER.

Umbrella handles are shorter, and the curve of the canopy is more shallow than formerly.

MEN'S HANDKERCHIEFS.

Wide plaid borders on fine white linen handkerchiefs are the latest male fad.

Plans For Winter Are Discussed At C. W. L. Meeting

The Saint John sub-division of the Catholic Women's League at its meeting last evening in the Knights of Columbus hall, heard of plans for many forthcoming events, including entertainments and lectures. Miss K. Lawlor, president, was in the chair and there was a large attendance of members. Excellent reports were presented by the various committees and the educational committee told of preparations for a lecture to be given on Sunday evening by Rev. James Cloran, C. S. R., whose subject will be "Sex and Character." The social committee announced that it was preparing some special activity for the near future.

It was also announced that at the next regular meeting of the sub-division, Rev. R. MacDonald, S. T. D., will be the speaker and will tell of his recent trip to Lourdes.

At the entertainment program following the business session very pleasing vocal solos were given by Miss Gertrude O'Neill and Miss Viola Walcutt, who were accompanied by Miss Josephine Lynch, accompanied by her sister, and a reading by Miss Mabel Scully were also greatly enjoyed. During the social half hour the members of the executive were hostesses for the serving of delicious refreshments.

Martello Temple.

Pythian Sisters.

Installs Officers.

Martello Temple, No. 25, Pythian Sisters, held its installation of officers last evening in Prentice Boys' hall, in West Saint John. The installation was conducted by the grand installing officers, Mrs. Emma Ievers and Mrs. A. L. Dykeman, and Mrs. C. P. Willis, grand manager. The officers installed were as follows: Past chief, Mrs. Mary Warnock; M. E. C., Mrs. Fred A. Perry; excellent senior, Mrs. W. I. Perry; excellent junior, Mrs. C. W. Fokins; mistress of finance, Mrs. J. Edwards; mistress of records and correspondence, Mrs. Viola Barlow; manager, Mrs. Walter Moore; protector, Mrs. William Lowe; outer guard, Mrs. B. L. Woods; press correspondent, Mrs. Harry Pike; trustee for 3 years, Miss Edith Edwards; degree mistress, Mrs. Emma Ievers; pianist, Miss Edna Logan; assistant pianist, Mrs. Frank McFarlane.

Following the installation the degree team held a practice session.

LADIES SOCIETY.

A sewing tea was held by the Ladies' Society of Knox church on Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance of members. Two quilts were started. During the afternoon dainty refreshments were served under the convener of Mrs. J. S. Clayton, Mrs. Joseph Smith, Mrs. H. Campbell, Mrs. A. H. Melrose and Mrs. Herbert Crockett. The sewing tea is to be held weekly for the remainder of the season.

Dainty gloves for formal wear are trimmed with delicately applied motifs of gold leather on white.

D. Magee's Sons LIMITED

MAKE AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT CONCERNING THEIR

67th Annual Clearance

WHICH IS OF MORE THAN PASSING INTEREST TO LADIES

It is The Fortunate Purchase of Some 100 Fur Coats

Fur Coats for Everyone. Girlish. Missy. Stylish Stouts. To Suit All Pocketbooks.

It has been a great many years since we have been fortunate enough to purchase such a large number of Fur Coats to offer our many friends and customers, at prices which in many cases are far below wholesale rates.

The assortment is one of the best we have ever seen, and we are pleased to be able to place them before the ladies of Saint John with an absolute guarantee of quality.

You can see by the prices that Dame Fortune is with you also in being able to purchase Coats of such rare values. There is no doubt in our minds that these garments will be chosen quickly, and we suggest that you come early.

The MAGEE policy will be the same in this sale as in all our regular business, namely: Full Quality Guaranteed.

Electric Seals

An all plain trimmed Coat of Seal with narrow or regular cuffs and gathered collar. Sizes from 34 to 36. Just the coat for the Missy.

Specially priced at

$80

Regular price was $110.00.

Electric Seals

This garment is 40 inches long, has the regular full sized cuffs, with crush collar of the same material. Its regular price was $135.00, but now is offered to you at the special price of $105

The special price on these is

$130

Its regular price was $165.00.

There are others with Wolf and Grey Lamb trimmings you will also want to see.

Muskrats

These Coats are made of Muskrat flanks and are trimmed with Fox collar and cuffs. Their shades are distinctly new, being of amber and cocoa. The sizes range from the Missy size to stylish stout models. It is a rare bargain at—

$220

The regular price was $275.00.

Muskrat Back Models

This is an assortment of garments made of standard Muskrat backs, with trimmings of Wolf and Coon, also a few with plain collar and cuffs. The special price on these is $145

Originally priced at $225.00.

Hudson Seals

Here is one of extra special quality Hudson Seal with trimmings of Seal and Skunk. You will be sure to admire this model, and at the price you wonder how we can do it

$336

D. Magee's Sons, Ltd.

63 KING STREET

Delightfully New Spring Frocks "The Finer Quality"

Special Friday and Saturday

$12.75

The Cleverest Frocks—and you'll say entirely different from those about town, too—all prettiest Spring models of Fine Satin and Silk Crepe—showing novel touches of pleating, new collar effects and deft touches of embroidery—and, of course, a wide choice of beautiful Spring shades.

See them in window tonight and remember they go on sale Friday and Saturday at $12.75.

London House

F. W. Daniel & Co. Head King Street

The Range for the Thrifty Housewife

AT THE PRICE YOU WANT TO PAY—you have a right to expect a Range that will bake perfectly, be easy on fuel and give you years of perfectly satisfactory service. All the features you'll find in

THE ENTERPRISE MAGIC which, in cast Ranges, is the most and best your money can buy for you. Come in and learn all about the Enterprise Magic Range.

EMERSON BROS., LTD. "THE KITCHEN STORE" Phone Main 1910 25 Germain Street Close at 1 on Saturdays