PLAY DRESS, WITH BOMPERS.

Comfort and style are combined in this child's play dress of galatea, accompanied by bloomers. Larger girls may use it for a "gym" costume.

This frock is suitable to development in galatea or linen, the waist being of a striped material, while the skirt is plain. To make it requires 1 1/2 yards of material.

Pictorial Review pattern No. 5791. Sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Price, 15 cents.

Patterns published in this series may be obtained by sending price of pattern in cash or stamps to The Evening Times Pattern Department, 23 Canterbury street, St. John. As a rule it takes about a week to deliver the patterns to the buyer. Those sending money must be careful (1) to write the number of the pattern plainly (2) to write their name and post office address clearly, and (3) to enclose the price.

SOCIETY MOURNS LOSS OF POPULAR LEADER

Boston, Sept. 26.—Boston Society has a grievance against the suffragists. The "Back Bay" has no objection to suffrage, but it does object to having its most popular society leader devote her time exclusively to the "votes for women" cause.

And Mrs. Stanley McCormick, daughter-in-law of the McCormick who invented the reaper, has wholly abandoned society and is giving all her time and a large share of her wealth to suffrage.

Mrs. McCormick is corresponding secretary of the International Woman suffrage alliance, and treasurer of the National Suffrage Association.

MORATORIUMS UNWISE

(Canadian Courier)

A moratorium is possible in Britain, because all Britain's creditors are her own people. The British consols, which represent her public debt, are held in Britain. All stocks and mortgages on public or private properties are held by other Britishers. But in Canada the case is different. Many mortgages on Canadian properties are held by British investors. Some are held by Canadian loan companies, but the loan companies in turn get this money from abroad. Hence a moratorium here would be a serious blow at Canadian credit abroad.

In the East many believe that the moratorium on mortgages passed by the Manitoba legislature last week is a great mistake, and that no other province will imitate it. Saskatchewan is reported to have decided that such action would only add fuel to the fire and would ultimately reflect unfavorably on investments in that province. Ontario has declined not to pass a moratorium, but to leave the judges the power to relieve any extreme cases.

Canadians must remember that our greatest asset is our credit abroad. To destroy that is to set Canada back a generation. Refusing the Dominion government refuses to declare a moraatorium, although parliament gave it the power to do so. This should be a warning to the nine provincial governments that the safest way to safeguard their credit is to avoid even the mildest form of moratoriums. If there are extreme cases, let the provincial government take care of them temporarily. Shifting the burden to the loan companies or banks is only a subterfuge.

TWO YEARS OF TORTURE FROM STOMACH TROUBLE

Cured by the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

There are two ways usually adopted in trying to cure indigestion or stomach trouble—one the wrong way by using purgatives and the other drugs which only act locally and which in the long run causes more distress by weakening the whole system. The other way and the right way is the Dr. Williams' manner of treatment—that is to nourish and build up the stomach by supplying plenty of nourishment, red blood, and gives it the necessary power to digest food. Thousands bear witness to the value of the Dr. Williams' treatment through the blood. Among them is the Rev. P. D. Nowlan, of Summerville, N. S., who says: "I certainly have great reason to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as they were the means of saving my life. Till I reached the age of thirty I never knew what pain or sickness meant, but after that my stomach failed me and food of any kind caused untold distress. I became constipated and was forced to use injections daily. This went on for about two years; I grew weaker and weaker; my weight fell off from 185 to 125 pounds; I had a hacking cough and appeared to be going into a decline.
All this time I was being treated by the best of doctors but without the least benefit. Night after night I could get no sleep the pain and agony was so severe. On consultation the doctors decided I was suffering from cancer of the stomach and advised an operation as a means of saving my life. This I refused to undergo and began to look forward to an early death. Just then a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had no faith in any medicine and at first refused, but my friend was so persistent that finally I gave in and purchased half a dozen boxes. By the time these were gone I felt much stronger and the distress was not so severe. I continued their use and each succeeding box wrought a marked improvement in my condition till by the time I had taken a dozen boxes every pain and ache had left me; my strength increased; my weight was back where it was before I was ill; I had a good appetite and was completely cured. In the years that have elapsed since I used the Pills not a twinge of the trouble has returned. To me Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the greatest medicine on earth and I never lose an opportunity in recommending them to other sufferers, for I feel that were it not for their use I would have been in my grave long ago."

A HEALTHOGRAM

To increase resistance to disease, and especially to colds, a well known physician gives these rules: Take frequent cold baths, if they agree with you; sleep in a cold room, breathe fresh air, don't over-eat, keep the bowels moving freely, and don't "coddle" yourself.
In this way you train the body to radiate heat as rapidly as it is abstracted from the body.

Manchester Robertson Allison, Limited

THE AUTHOR LOCATED

The number of authors credited with the poem: "Me and Gott," are legion.
Montreal did its best to retain the poet within its municipal borders; New York also claimed it as an American product, but getting down to brass tacks it originated, as all clever men and wonderful creations, must originate, in the "Land o' Cakes." The "British Weekly" states:
"This war is reviving the song 'Hochder Kaiser,' which was for a long time a favorite of the sailors in the American Atlantic fleet. It was common to sing it to and fro. At a dinner at the Union League Club of New York City some years ago, Captain Coghlan recited the poem, which met with enthusiastic applause, with the natural result that Captain Coghlan was repatriated from Washington. The first verse runs thus—"Der Kaiser of die Vaterland Und Gott on High all dings command."

Ve two—Ach! Don't you understand Myself—and Gott."

The author of these lines was A. Macgregor Rose. He was born at Tomlinson and studied for the ministry of the Free Church in Aberdeen. In due time he was ordained to the church at Erie and Rendall, in Orkney. He did not settle down there, and ultimately found his way abroad and took to a journalistic career, in which he had many vicissitudes. He has now been dead for a considerable time. But his verses are alive, and one cabinet minister recites them at present with immense effect.
