DEFICIT ABOUT $5,000 OR $6,000

Financial Report to Exhibition Association Regarded as Good Under Circumstances

A deficit of between $5,000 and $6,000 on the 1914 fair is shown in the financial statement submitted to the annual meeting of the exhibition association this afternoon. This is a heavy loss, but less than might have been expected under the circumstances, and the management is entitled to credit for the excellent showing made in a year when others found it necessary to cancel their arrangements.

The directors met at 2.30 o'clock this afternoon in their offices, Prince William street, to receive the reports. This was followed by the annual meeting of the stockholders for confirmation of the reports and the election of officers. As it has been the policy of the association to hold an exhibition only every second year, it is not expected that there will be any discussion of a fair for next year, especially in view of the unsettled condition of affairs during the war.

Mail Brings More News From Our Soldier Lads
 Lieutenant Inches of St. John Transferred to Heavy Battery Under Major Magee

Miss M. E. Corner, of 147 St. James street, has received a letter from her cousin, Private Cuthbert L. Mofford, who is with the Canadian expeditionary force at Salisbury Plain. He tells of his trip across and what a nice time he had. Drill and roll call were carried out on the trip just the same as when they were in camp. His ship, the Scotian, arrived at Plymouth harbor on Oct. 10, and they were on the boat in harbor for eight days before going to camp. At the camp he is enjoying himself, also the other St. John boys, and is looking forward to the time when they will be called to the firing line, which they all hope will be soon. He says that three days' leave of absence will be given to the boys, so that they can see London before they leave for the war.

St. John Soldier Goes Flying.
 A letter received by Mrs. Lingley of 87 High street, from her son, Otty D., who sailed over to France on the contingent for overseas service, tells of the very pleasant and exciting trip across. They were at one time only several miles from France. He told of a German spy being caught in the act of poisoning the drinking water at Salisbury Plain. The spy was court-martialed and shot. They are getting down to soldier life and expect to leave for the firing line in France about December 1. The ammunition column does not seem exciting enough for him so he is trying for a transfer to the flying corps. He tells of being up in an airship and would like to be flying through the air dropping deadly bombs on the Germans. He wishes to be remembered to his many friends in St. John.

In a letter from one of the artillery officers from St. John now at Salisbury Plains a glimpse of the active life the men are leading while being licked into shape for foreign service is given. "We are supposed, in theory, to be here for a rest after the trip across the ocean," he says, "but the fact is that we are on the other side, all officers' leave has been cancelled, as they are too busy to get away."

While the men are being given an opportunity to get away from camp for a few days at a time, a privilege especially appreciated by those whose homes are on the other side, all officers' leave has been cancelled, as they are too busy to get away.

The visit of Lord Roberts, who inspected the camp with Hon. Sam Hughes, is referred to and the writer speaks of the enthusiasm shown by the contingent over the visit of the veteran leader.

He mentions that Lieutenant Inches has been transferred from the ammunition column to the heavy battery under Major Magee.
 Mrs. T. Nash has received a letter from her husband, Driver T. Nash, who left St. John for overseas with the artillery. He tells of the trip across and of life in camp at Salisbury plain and says that he is in the best of health. He has been granted three days' leave of absence and was planning to spend the holiday in London. He sends his regards to all his friends in St. John.

KINDERGARTENS' SPLENDID WORK

German Street Brotherhood Pledged to Aid The Association

CHEERING REPORTS

T. H. Estabrooks Makes Strong Plea For Support of All Local Institutions as Well as Providing War Funds—The Treasurer's Report

The annual meeting of the Free Kindergarten Association was held last evening in the institute of the German street brotherhood, Mr. Hayes presided, and there was a fairly large attendance, especially of ladies, but including the men, the business session was a success. The reports were submitted by the president, Mrs. F. E. Holman, the secretary, Miss Gunn, the treasurer, Mrs. C. F. Woodman; and by Mrs. W. C. Matthews and the supervisors of the four kindergartens, Miss Morton, South End; Miss Estey, Brussels street; Miss Hazel Seely, Waterloo street, and Miss Stephens, North End.

The report of the Free Kindergarten Association is being greatly appreciated was shown by the reports of the four supervisors, each of them stating that they have had to turn children away for lack of room. Miss Morton said she had to turn away thirty-five children. Miss Estey reported that twelve were on her waiting list. Miss Seely said that some mothers wanted to have their children admitted, even if they could not get a chair, saying that they were never so happy as when they were in the kindergarten school. Miss Stephens also reported that the school was taxed to its utmost capacity. It was stated that some mothers had even offered to buy a chair where there was no room, but of course this could not be granted.

After the reports had been received, R. G. Haley, on behalf of the German street Brotherhood, expressed their full sympathy with the work of the kindergarten association, and a desire to do anything in their power to make its work more successful. Mr. Haley said that the Brotherhood was a strong organization and meant exactly what was stated in the resolution; and another member of the Brotherhood was a strong organization and meant exactly what was stated in the resolution; and another member of the Brotherhood was a strong organization and meant exactly what was stated in the resolution.

DUGAL REPORT NOW IN OTTAWA?

Fredericton Hears Some Rumors of Interest

Governor and Acting Premier Go To Dominion Capital - Consideration of Situation There Before Meeting of Local Government Next Week

Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 10.—There is a report here that Lieut.-Governor Wood has gone to Ottawa for consultation with Hon. J. D. Hazen on matters of interest to the people of this province.

It is also reported that the finding of the Royal Commission on the Dugal charges which, for the last month, has been reposing in a pigeon-hole in a desk in the departmental building, suddenly took on life on Saturday evening and went to Fredericton Junction, and is now also in Ottawa.
 Acting Premier Clarke left the city by the western train last evening and it is said that the dominion capital is his destined destination.
 Putting this and that together, it rather looks as if there would be some discussion of a political nature in the course of a few days. The local government will meet here on the seventeenth, and it is expected that the Dugal report under consideration. In the meantime, it will be considered at Ottawa, and a plan of action decided upon.

ST. PETER'S HIGH TEA

The annual high tea of the ladies of St. Peter's church was opened last evening in the hall in Elm street with a large attendance. A delicious supper was served with two long tables filled with all times with guests, and a capable committee of pretty young ladies attending to their welfare. The decorations of the tables were most attractive. The various games and amusements were generously patronized and much interest was aroused in the several contests of skill.
 The Y. M. C. A. orchestra played an entertaining programme in which the national airs of Britain and her allies predominated. The orchestra will be present for each of the three succeeding nights. The arrangements for the tea have been in charge of Miss Sarah Lynch, while Mrs. Martin and Mrs. W. Mullin in charge of the tea tables, Miss M. Tierney in charge of the fancy work table, Mrs. D. Deardon in charge of the Empire Exhibition. Each of these ladies is assisted by an efficient staff. The proceeds of the tea and sale will be devoted towards defraying the expenses of the new school now in building.

For each, and $117 was secured, with an additional $214 in contributions of two dollars to $25 each, making a total of $381. This kept them going until September last, when a city grant of $1,000 for this year was received. Out of it the salaries and other expenses for September and October were paid, leaving a balance on hand of $872.93.

Earle Logan for the Orange Lodge, Daughters of the Empire, W. C. T. U., Local Council of Women, Board of School Trustees, Playground Association, Brotherhoods of German street and Centenary churches, Y. M. C. We Want to Talk to The Man Who is About to Buy Clothing
 We want to put him on the right track.
 We want to tell him why he can do better at Oak Hall than at any other store in Saint John.
 We want to prove this to his entire satisfaction.
 Now it stands to reason that if you could go to the source of supply and buy some article you need directly from the producer, at the producer's wholesale price, thus eliminating the middleman's profit, you would save the money.
 Well, this is exactly what you can do when it comes to buying clothing.
 You can come here and buy directly of the producers, and you can save the middleman's profit.
 We add only our fair profit to the cost of making, and we sell directly to you at practically the same prices other stores must pay at wholesale.
 You can buy from us for $15 the same grade of suits that other stores sell at $20.
 In other stores you must pay two profits, the manufacturer's and the retailer's, and this is what makes the excess cost to the consumer.
 The difference between paying one profit and two profits is the difference between our prices and other stores' prices.
 You can easily satisfy yourself as to the correctness of these facts by simply making an investigation—and let us tell you, sir, it will pay to investigate.
 Compare the clothing you can buy elsewhere with the clothing you can buy from us at the different prices.
