Judge McKeown Decides in the Stevens Case

SOLDIERS AND DOCTORS
Forty Men in Royal Regiment Company But Two Physicians —Produce Shipper Says Potato Business is Very Brisk Now

(Special To The Times) Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 29.—In the divorce court this morning in the case of Anna B. Stevens vs. L. E. D. Stevens, Judge McKeown granted the plaintiff an absolute divorce on statutory grounds.
The court left it open for A. N. Charters, proctor for the plaintiff to apply for alimony at a future date. In regard to the custody of the child, he was told that the court had no power to deal with the matter.

Although the numerical strength of H. Company of the Royal Regiment here is now down to about forty men, the government continues to employ two medical officers to attend to their physical needs. Surgeon Lieut. Col.
Belton, who arrived here from London, Ont., is performing his duty as a member of the permanent army medical staff and Doctor Walwright, a local physician, who was appointed by the Borden government nearly two years ago, continues to draw his salary. He has a strong political pull and declares he will not be ousted from the job.

"The new United States tariff is a great snap for the farmers of this section," remarked Ald. W. W. Boyce, a produce shipper, to the Times correspondent this morning. "At the present time I am paying out $2,000 for potatoes for the American market." He went on to say that the demand for New Brunswick potatoes continues very brisk and he was daily receiving orders and enquiries. The price paid by shippers is now $1.10 a barrel, an increase of twenty-five cents since the new tariff went into force.

Alderman Boyce said that he expected potatoes to go to $2 by the end of the year.

Alumnae Whist Last Night Well Attended and Enjoyed

What proved to be a very pleasing social function was the whist held last evening in Keith's Assembly rooms by the members of St. Vincent's Alumnae.
It was very well attended, there being more than fifty tables in progress. The success which has marked this event in other years was more than ever in evidence last night and all present had a particularly delightful time. The gathering dispersed about midnight, with refreshments served just a little before.
The ladies' first prize was won by Miss Gertrude McHugh, second by Mrs.
George P. Allen; gentlemen's first prize by Wm. Cogger, and second by G. T.
McCarthy. During the evening an enjoyable programme of music was furnished by an orchestra composed of Messrs. C. J. Morgan, Fred. J. Hazel, H. Bridge, A. Phillips, Harry Mc-Quade, and E. R. Hansen. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of Messrs. Agnes McKinney, Katherine O'Neil, and Clare O'Connell; Mrs. McKeown, Misses Elizabeth McInerney, Geraldine Carleton, Agnes Scully, and Mamie McQuigan, refreshments, and Misses Josephine Gorman, Mary Kilborn, and Helen Ryan, room committee.

A CALL FOR A LEADER

They Get Away From the Real Point Who Prate About The Need of Greater Facilities—Gutelius Agreement the Eater-ing Wedge for C. P. R. Control

Editor Times:—
Sir:—Poor St. John! It would appear that some of its commissioners think more of party than they do of the best interests of the city they represent. The attitude of the most patriotic citizens concerning the Gutelius agreement is apparently not adopted by some of our commissioners, who get away from the main question by prating about our present need of greater facilities. Is it not admitted by the C. P. R. that the facilities at St. John are better for the mail trade than those of Halifax? Facilities!
It is not today, it was not at the evil moment when Mr. Gutelius listened to his late employer, the C. P. R., a question of facilities.
The C. P. R. took advantage of the situation and of the feeling in Halifax against St. John and "worked," as the C. P. R. generally does work, an agreement in their own favor and to the detriment of St. John. The commissioners ought at this stage to understand the real question. It is not a question of facilities. They should be aware that the question is—Should the C. P. R. control only control Mr. Gutelius, influence the government, and then at the eleventh hour cancel their sailing schedule for St. John, and make a nefarious agreement by which they run past our port, leaving St. John out in the cold and traveling hundreds of extra miles to Halifax by the grace of the I. C. R., according to the statement of the C. P. R. president.

This agreement is the entering of the thin edge of the wedge, and if allowed by our citizens to come in force now, we may expect the C. P. R., after the methods of the C. P. R., to want more next year, and so on until they own the I. C. R.
"the people's railroad."

The I. C. R. is the people's road. The C. P. R. is a petted corporation which has a tax on the dominion. What has it not cost Canada, in land, in cash, in subsidies? What do our citizens think about allowing the C. P. R. to have any more rights whatever over the I. C. R.? Why should they? What do our longshoremen, our mechanics, our artisans, hotel-keepers, merchants think about allowing such an agreement such an agreement against St. John to come in force? They have more interest in St. John than has Mr. Gutelius.
St. John—some one who would say, and say firmly, "We will never consent, never allowed a C. P. R. train to go from our I. C. R. depot to build up the C. P. R."

Yours,
A FIGHTING CITIZEN.

A Suggestion
Another public-spirited citizen suggests that the time has come for some striking united action by the citizens of St. John to show how much in earnest we are over this matter and how strongly we protest against the injustice being done this port. Street parades and mass meetings at King Square and St. Andrew's rink are suggested. Action is what is needed, and promptly.

GORDON LIKELY AND MISS CREIGHTON WED

Ceremony of Much Interest This Afternoon at The Bride's Home

An event of much interest to many friends took place this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when J. Gordon Likely son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Likely, was united in marriage to Miss Ethel Creighton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
H. C. Creighton. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. H. Barra-clough, pastor of Centenary church, took place at the home of the bride's parents, 187 Queen street, which was prettily decorated for the occasion with potted plants, palms and ferns.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white duchesse satin, trimmed with princess lace and accented with veil trimmed with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white bridal roses.
The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Creighton, sister of the bride, and Miss Jessie Likely, sister of the bridegroom.
Miss Creighton wore pale pink crepe de chene over pink satin trimmed with ruffles and accented pleated lace. Miss Likely's gown was of pale green crepe de chene over pale green satin with trimmings of ruffles and accented pleated lace. Both wore Juliet caps trimmed with maiden hair fern and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums. Dr.
David Likely of New York, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsman.
Miss Alice Hea played an appropriate programme of wedding music and Mrs.
A. P. Crockett sang, during the ceremony, "Beloved, It is Morn." Following the ceremony a reception will be held and supper served and Mr. and Mrs. Likely will leave on the Boston train for New York where they will sail for New Orleans and, after an extended wedding trip, will return to St. John in about three weeks. For going away the bride will wear a tall-oiled suit of brown worsted with brown felt hat to match. On their return they will reside at 187 Leinster street.
A large number of exceptionally handsome wedding presents were received from friends and relatives of both bride and bridegroom.
