WATERLOO STREET CHURCH.
The evangelistic services are being continued each night in Waterloo street U. B. church. The meeting tonight will commence with a song service by the choir at 7:45. A special programme of music has been arranged. During the week there will be addresses delivered each night by ministers from city churches. One interesting feature of these meetings is the interest shown by workers who take part in the Torrey campaign. Several of the personal workers are present and are enthusiastic in keeping up the revival interest in the city. This is quoted by church members to show that the Torrey campaign was not a failure as some have intimated.

EXMOUTH ST. SLEIGH DRIVE.
Are you for a letter St. John? The Epworth League of Exmouth street church has given an answer in no uncertain voice by treating its members and friends to a sleigh-ride and supper which is but a fore-taste of the good things both social and literary to be enjoyed by the society during 1911.
At 7:30 last evening a party numbering about thirty gathered at the church where the "Moonlight" sleigh four was already in waiting. All arrangements being made the merry party were soon on their way eastward. The sleighing was excellent and although a certain Jack Frost made his presence felt he times still everybody thoroughly enjoyed the drive as the happy faces in the silver moonlight and the joyous songs which sounded on the evening air fully proved.
On reaching Torribun the horses were turned homeward and on arriving in town again all partook of an excellent repast which the ladies of the social committee had prepared in the church schoolroom. After a vote of thanks had been tendered to the social committee and appropriately replied to, speeches were in order. Addresses were given by the president of the society and by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Brewer, who gave many valuable suggestions for the improvement of the society. After singing the national anthem, the happy party dispersed to their homes thoroughly satisfied with the outing and looking forward to many such in the future.

Question to Come Up at Annual Meeting of the Church Tomorrow Evening

At the annual meeting of the congregation of St. Stephen's Presbyterian church held tomorrow evening, the question of a vested choir will be discussed and a vote taken on the advisability of having the choir uniformly governed. This matter came up last year in connection with choir matters and was approved at that time, though no action was taken. At tomorrow night's meeting the congregation will be given an opportunity to vote upon it and it was said today that the vote would probably be favorable. Officers will be elected and the reports of the year submitted.

REV. G. A. ROSS TO REMAIN IN FAIRVILLE

Chooses Present Charge in Place of Call from Sackville Methodist Church

At the second quarterly meeting of the official board of the Fairville Methodist church last Friday evening, a unanimous invitation was extended to the present minister, Rev. George A. Ross, to remain another year. In replying, Mr. Ross said that he had received a call from the Sackville circuit, to become their pastor, and asked that his board allow him until Monday evening to decide whether or not he would accept.
The adjourned meeting which was held last evening was attended by many, and Mr. Ross, in a short speech, declared that, after weighing the matter carefully, he had decided to remain in Fairville.
The board received the announcement with great enthusiasm, particularly as it was well known that great pressure had been brought to bear on him from various sources to induce him to accept the invitation of Sackville, which is looked upon as one of the most important churches in the New Brunswick circuit.
Not only is the stipend larger than he is now paid, but the advantages in intellectual attainment and intercourse afford an alluring field for a progressive clergyman, and particularly one of such striking ability as Mr. Ross.
Recognizing the fine spirit exhibited by their pastor in considering his church as of primary importance, the board, in a hearty vote of appreciation, and pledged themselves for renewed assistance to him in every way.
