

agement were ever ready, and his presence in the Sabbath School was our inspiration. Remembering his earnest words and faithful service, "we sorrow not as others who have no hope," believing that his word will still live in many hearts and lives of those who were associated with him.

We desire to thank our friends in the congregation who have assisted us in the work of the school, and to Miss Gordon, Miss Walker, Miss Glover, Miss Ross and Miss May Essex, for their efficient work in training the children for our Anniversary Services.

Praying that our Heavenly Father may accept and bless our work.
