How to avoid Operations. These Three Women Tell How They Escaped the Dreadful Ordeal of Surgical Operations.

Hospitals are great and necessary institutions, but they should be the last resort for women who suffer with ills peculiar to their sex. Many letters on file in the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., prove that a great number of women after they have been recommended to submit to an operation have been made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here are three such letters. All sick women should read them.

Marinette, Wis.—"I went to the doctor and he told me I must have an operation for a female trouble, and I hated to have a done as I had been married only a short time. I would have terrible pains and my hands and feet were cold all the time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was cured, and I feel better in every way. I give you permission to publish my name because I am so thankful that I feel well again."—Mrs. FRANK BURRICK, Marinette, Wis.

Detroit, Mich.—"When I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was so run down with female troubles that I could not do anything, and our doctor said I would have to undergo an operation. I could hardly walk without help so when I read about the Vegetable Compound and what it had done for others I thought I would try it. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of directions. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and used them according to directions. They helped me and today I am able to do all my work and I am well."—Mrs. THOS. DWYER, 889 Milwaukee Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Bellevue, Pa.—"I suffered more than ten years with terrible bearing down pains and inflammation. I tried several doctors and they all told me the same story, that I never could get well without an operation and I just dreaded the thought of it. I also tried a good many other medicines that were recommended to me and none of them helped me until a friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I don't know what it is but I am well and I am picking up in weight. I am 20 years old and weigh 145 pounds. It will be the greatest pleasure to me if you can give me the opportunity to recommend it to any other suffering woman."—Miss IRENE FRONZONKA, 1223 Manhattan St., North Shore, Bellevue, Pa.

Coal Steamer Chartered

At the public meeting held in the F. P. U. hall on Tuesday night, Mr. Coaker in referring to the coal question said that the committee of the Government and Opposition—the Premier, the Minister of Finance and himself—had chartered a steamer which would carry 3500 tons of coal. He thought about half of that could be secured for Harbor Grace and Bay Roberts, and suggested that Capt. Henry Dawe, J. P., and the Editor of The Guardian take the matter up with the committee and the local coal dealers and see what arrangements could be made to handle a quantity of this coal.

Carbon Paint. Try some for that new roof. Or maybe you have a leaky roof, Carbon Paint is just the thing to stop the leak. Be sure and try it. C. E. Russell, Sole Agent.

The manager of a factory recently engaged a new man and gave instructions to the foreman to instruct him in his duties. A few days afterward the manager inquired whether the new man was progressing with his work. The foreman who had not been well with the man in charge said: "There's been a lot of progress. I have taught him everything I know and he is still an ignorant fool."

A member of the business staff of Robert Mantel, the actor, tells of a conversation he overheard "in front" on the occasion of Mr. Mantel's production of "Hamlet" in a western town. "Oh, Harry," said the young woman, "I think it's an awful shame to drown Ophelia and kill Hamlet. They ought to have been married." Whereupon Harry heaved a sigh and looked earnestly at his companion: "I ain't great on tragedy," said he, "but that's how I'd fix it."
