ST. JOHN'S

Earl Haig's Visit to Nfld.

The official landing of Earl and Lady Haig from the S.S. Corona took place at King's wharf, St. John's, on Sunday morning, June 29th. They were met by Governor and Lady Allardyce, representatives of the Great War Veterans Association of Newfoundland and members of the Government. After the official welcome had been made, the various Brigades attended the Memorial Services which were held in the several churches.

On Monday representatives of the Outport Brigades and Societies went into St. John's to take part in the Haig celebration. An official dinner and Reception was given at Government House on Monday night when many prominent citizens were privileged to meet the distinguished visitors.

Tuesday, July 1st, the commemoration of the Great Drive when so many of "Ours" paid so dearly for Honor and Freedom, marked the outstanding event of the Earl's visit, that of unveiling Newfoundland's War Memorial to her gallant dead.

At 9.30 a.m. the various units, in charge of Colonel W. F. Rendell and fully officered, assembled on the Promenade near the Railway Station, and there they were given their positions as follows:—

Mounted Police, Band of H. M. S. Constance, Blue Jackets H. M. S. Constance, French Naval Detachment, American Naval Detachment, C. L. B. Band, C. C. C. Band, Newfoundland Royal Naval Reserve, Mercantile Marine, Details of Imperial, Colonial and Allied Forces, M. G. Band, 1 and 2 Co's. Royal Nfld. Regiment, Highlanders' Pipe Band, Mount Cash Band, Guard of Honour and Colour Party, S. A. Band, and the "Coley" Nfld. Regiment, Newfoundland Forestry Corps, Sea Scouts.

In the meantime the Church Lads' Brigade, the Catholic Cadet Corps, the Newfoundland Highlanders, Boy Scouts and Girl Guides, including the city Troops and representatives from Carbonear, Harbor Grace and Bay Roberts, and Grand Falls, lined Water Street and both sides from Queen Street to the Memorial site, and as the parade passed through they fell in, making the event the largest and most spectacular of its kind in the history of the country. The programme called for the vanguard of the parade to reach the Court House by 10 o'clock, in front of which, on a specially erected platform, Field Marshal Earl Haig took the salute.

Almost to the minute the Band of H. M. S. Constance came in sight, with the various units following. The C. L. B. Band drew out from the parade here, and until the last Girl Guides had passed continued to play the "Banks of Newfoundland."

At five minutes of 11 o'clock His Excellency the Governor accompanied by Field Marshal Earl Haig, who was attended by the Prime Minister, Hon. W. S. Monroe, and others prominent in public life arrived at the site of the memorial. The party was met by Padre Nangie, R. G. Rendell, Esq., Chairman and P. E. Outerbridge, Secretary, of the Memorial Committee. On the platform of the Memorial were His Lordship the Bishop of Newfoundland accompanied by his Chaplain, Rev. Canon Bolt; His Lordship, Bishop March of Harbor Grace, attended by his Chaplain, Rt. Rev. Mons. McCarthy; and Rev. Ezra Broughton, President of the Methodist Conference. Also in attendance on the platform were Countess Haig, Lady Allardyce, Miss Allardyce, Mrs. W. S. Monroe, Capt. Victor Gordon, High Commissioner at London, and others.

Before the presentation of the Memorial, the massed bands played the first verse of Kipling's "Recessional", then the choir of two hundred voices sang the verses alternately. The presentation of the Memorial, on behalf of the War Memorial Committee, was made by Mr. R. G. Rendell, C.B.E., late Lieut.-Col. of the C. L. B., to his Excellency Governor Allardyce, who on behalf of the whole population of Newfoundland, accepted it, delivering an eloquent speech in doing so.

The dedication of the Memorial was made by Rev. Ezra Broughton, His Lordship Bishop March of Harbor Grace Diocese, His Lordship, the Bishop of Newfoundland and Canon Bolt.

At the close of the dedicatory ceremonies, the saluting party fired the three volleys to the memory of the dead and the buglers sounded the "Last Post." Two minutes of silence was observed.

Field Marshal Earl Haig, Kt., G. C. B., O. M., next addressed the gathering in a very patriotic speech at the close of which he pulled the cords which unveiled Newfoundland's National War Memorial.

At the conclusion of Earl Haig's address he laid a wreath upon the base of the Monument. He was followed by Governor Allardyce, the Prime Minister and City Council, Officers of the Ships, Societies, relatives and friends of deceased soldiers and sailors.

After all the wreaths had been placed the "Ode to Newfoundland" was sung and the armed party was given the command to slope arms and "present" while the officers in command saluted the colors. The parade then moved off to the various halls where they dismissed. A fine programme of Sports was held at St. George's Field where many of Newfoundland's athletes exhibited their skill. The prizes were presented by Countess Haig. Later in the week Earl Haig was entertained by the Sergeant's Mess at a dinner in Grenfell Hall, a fishing trip, luncheon at Bally Holey by Premier and Mrs. Monroe, and inspection of Brigades, also a regatta at Quidi Vidi went to make Earl Haig's visit one to be long remembered by him.

On Monday, July 7th, the Cunard liner Caronia bore our honoured visitors back to the shores of old England and as they departed Newfoundland raised her voice to say "Bon Voyage and Au Revoir."

CONCERT IN R. C. HALL.

A concert, which reflected great praise to those taking part, was given in the R. C. Hall on Tuesday night, July 8th. The lengthy programme consisted of songs, duets, trios, monologues and a humorous sketch entitled "The Beauty Doctor." To Miss Genevieve Dawson and her assistants who worked so hard to present such a pleasing entertainment a special word of praise is due. Also to Mrs. Bellamy and Mr. McDonald as accompanists, the Jazz Band, and Miss Helen Snow, whose talent called for much praise. At the close of the concert Rev. Fr. Thebaud spoke words of congratulation to those taking part. After the singing of Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem, refreshments were served by the ladies and dancing indulged in.

OBITUARY

There passed peacefully away on Sunday, June 29th, at Allston, Mass., after a brief illness, Marion Shears, dearly loved wife of Ernest Kelly, aged 26 years.

The deceased left here a year ago to make her home in the United States, where she made many friends who are grief-stricken by her passing. Up until three weeks previous to her death, she had always enjoyed perfect health and to those who attended her it seemed that she had fully recovered, when suddenly she was taken and before medical aid could be summoned she had changed Time for Eternity.

The news of her death plunged this community into sadness for by her smiling face and bright personality she won her way into many hearts.

The Master Gardener, passing here, Amid the shades of even, Tenderly took the fairest flower To bloom for Him in Heaven.

Death could not have taken one dearer, Nor paled a lovelier brow; But if 'twill make Heaven seem nearer, In meek submission we'll bow.

A service was held in Brookline, Mass., by Rev. Mr. Luken, prior to the remains leaving for the station to entrain for here. It was largely attended by Newfoundlanders and others to whom the deceased was known. Accompanied by the husband and sister, Mrs. Arthur Snow, the remains, enclosed in a beautiful casket, arrived here on Monday night last. A carriage was engaged to convey the gorgeous floral tributes which were sent from the United States.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, July 9th, from the residence of Mr. Edward Snow, father of the deceased. A large concourse of mourners, friends and citizens filled the Church of England, Coley's Pt., to pay their last respects to one whom in life they loved and in death they mourned.

Rev. E. M. Bishop chose for his text John 13, verse 7, "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." The hymns used at the service were, "Christ, who once amongst us, as a child did dwell" and "Lord, it belongs not to my care whether I die or live."

Left to mourn their sad loss are a husband, infant son, father, mother, one brother, Jas. S. Snow, of this town, three sisters, Mrs. Bert Bradbury, Country Road, Mrs. Arthur Snow, Watertown, Mass., and Pearl, at home, beside a large circle of friends to all of whom the sympathy of the community is extended.

"The love that lingers 'round her name Is more than fame."
Representatives of the 1st Bay Roberts Company Girl Guides and 1st Bay Roberts Troop Boy Scouts attended the Haig celebrations at St. John's last week.
