

Q. Helped to build it? A. He helped ~~me~~ all the time.

Q. To build it? A. Yes. He was keeping cattle there all the time, all winter.

Q. It was built in the winter time? A. Yes, it was not built in the summer time.

Q. And Thomas Truthwaite himself helped to build it?

A. Yes.

Q. Was Peter George there while the house was being built?

A. When we built that house it was intended for Peter George to live in.

Q. Was Peter George around on the land, on the lot while the work was being done, did he help in the building?

A. Yes, he was knocking around there. He was working at the stables all the time for Thomas Truthwaite.

Q. Were there any other men working on the job besides you and Mr. Truthwaite and Mr. George?

A. There was another man but he died.

Q. Who hired that man, who paid him? A. Mr. Truthwaite.

Q. Who paid you for your work? A. Mr. Truthwaite.

Q. Did you ever know of Peter George claiming that house and lot as his. A. Not at that time, a good while after.

Q. Did you ever hear Peter George speaking of it as belonging to Truthwaite?

A. I heard at the time of the investigation of McColl and Witcher.

Q. Heard what.

A. Heard that time that Peter George was claiming it.

Q. Was that the first time you heard of Peter George claiming it? A. Yes.

Q. Before that time, before the time of the commission and going back to about the time of the transfer, did you ever hear Peter George talking of the house and lot as being Truthwaite's?

Indian Affairs. (RG 10, Volume 3735, file 27117-3)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA

Poor-Copy