Accidents will happen despite all care and painful injuries such as Sprains, Bruises, Cuts, and Burns result. Every family should therefore keep Hagyard's Yellow Oil on hand, it is the greatest family remedy for all Pains, Coughs, Colds and Sore Throat, Croup and Whooping Cough yield quickly to this excellent remedy.

The lobster fishermen of Port Beckerton N. S., have petitioned the government complaining against the recent order in council restricting lobster fishing and asking for an extension of time from 13th September to 15th November, In support of their petition they state the great majority of inhabitants are dependent on lobster fishing and if the order-in-council restricting the period to the months of May and June is enforced it will occasion a great deal of poverty and distress.

Well worth trying. A medicine which has at ood the test of time for many years and always given the best satisfaction as has Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam is certainly well worth trying for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness and all Throst troubles for which it is so highly recom-

A Montreal despatch of let inst says-"Tuesday evening a shocking accident happened to Delima Daigneault a six year old girl who lives with her widowed mother. The little girl was sitting on a couch next to the table at which her brother and two of his friends were sitting playing eards. The child was playing with her dolls when one of the players struck the table with his fist. A glass lamp which stood on the table fell, and the bowl breaking off from the foot fell on the child, the oil imiting her done. the child, the oil igniting her dress. The four players did their utmost to put out the flames, but when they finally succeeded the little girl was burned from head to foot. Her face and little body are so badly burnt that when Dr. Dubuc came he could only give scant hope,"
